INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Animal Crossing!

Thank you for purchasing Prima's Official Game Guide to Animal Crossing: City Folk on Nintendo Wii. Whether you're a big-time city slicker or a fun-lovin' country bumpkin, this book is filled with all the tips and info you need to get the most out of your Animal Crossing experience!

What Is Animal Crossing, Anyway?

Imagine yourself in a world filled with quirky friends and laid-back adventure. That's Animal Crossing: a fun-filled game that asks you to stop and smell the roses. You create your own special life: dress yourself up, decorate your home, and interact with neighbors and nature in a bunch of cool ways. There's more to see and do than you could ever imagine, and with the help of this guide, you won't miss a thing!

How to Use This Book

This guide is broken down into 11 special chapters. Let's take a peek at what you'll find in each one.

Chapter 1: Introduction

You're reading it now! This chapter simply introduces the game and guide, telling you what they both have in store for you.

Chapter 2: Starting Out

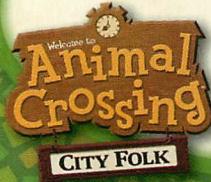

Ready to start your new life? This chapter guides you through the early stages; everything from your first conversation with Rover to your first day in town.

Check out this part when you're curious about creating your character, picking out your new home, and working for that shopkeeper, Tom Nook.

Chapter 3: Out on the Town

All done with your chores? Then why not go outside and play? This chapter covers absolutely everything you can do in town, from collecting seashells and shaking trees to designing your own clothes at the Able Sister's workshop, which is a good place to check when you're looking for something fun to do!

Chapter 4: City Folk

They don't call it City Folk for nothing! Hop on the bus whenever you feel like taking a spin to the city for a little change of scenery—and be sure to check out this chapter when you want to know all about those bright lights and city sights.

Chapter 5: Neighbors and Friends

You're never alone when you play Animal Crossing, even when your real-life friends aren't around. Cool neighbors live in your town, and there are lots of special visitors to boot. This chapter lists every potential new best friend, telling you their favorite sayings and even their birthdays. Don't forget the cake!

Chapter 6: Special Events

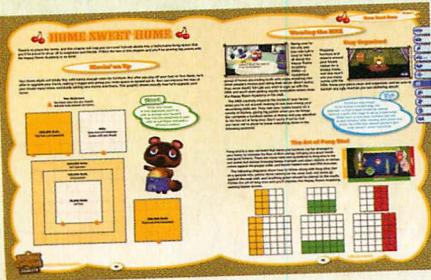

People just love holidays, and your neighbors are no different. There are loads of special events going on every month in Animal Crossing, from birthdays to special festivals held only at certain times of the year. Be sure to check this chapter so you don't miss anything cool!

Chapter 7: Home Sweet Home

Home is where you hang your hat, but you can put a whole lot more in your house than that! Make your house into a home by giving it some fresh new carpet,

wallpaper, and furniture that reflects your own style. This chapter will show you how to get your room looking cool and will teach you how to score big points with the Happy Room Academy!

Chapter 8: Furniture Catalogue

In the market for a lovely armoire? Just want to browse your home-décor options? Have a look at our expansive furniture catalogue, which lists each and every piece of furniture, wallpaper, and flooring available. Checkboxes are also provided to help you keep track of everything you've collected.

Chapter 9: Clothing and Apparel

The checklists continue with your seasonal wardrobe options. Make a fashion statement wherever you go by decking yourself out from head to toe—and don't forget to accessorize!

Chapter 10: Collectibles

When you're not chatting up neighbors or redecorating your home, you'll be spending lots and lots of time collecting stuff. Bugs and fish, fossils and paintings, paper and Gyroids, seashells and fruit, flora and fauna—all of these and more await discovery in the wild world of Animal Crossing: City Folk!

Chapter 11: Item Index

Getting lost in the depths of our oh-so-informative guide? No worries; just flip to the alphabetical index at the back, look up the item you're trying to find out more about, and you'll find page numbers that tell you exactly where to flip.

STARTING OUT

A world full of adventure and friendship awaits you in Animal Crossing: City Folk, but there are a few important things you must do before the game really opens up, like moving to town, buying a home, and introducing yourself to your new neighbors—including one smooth raccoon by the name of Tom Nook. You've a big day ahead of you, but don't worry: we're here to guide you step by step along the way!

The first thing you must do is chat with Rover, a super-cool cat who's eager to help you begin your new life. Rover begins by asking you a simple question: Do you want to import your existing Animal Crossing: Wild World data from your Nintendo DS, or start a fresh new life?

NOTE

Rover will greet you each time you begin playing Animal Crossing: City Folk. He first confirms the time of day and the date; then he asks you which character you'd like to play as. Pick your character's name from the list and you'll soon be whisked away, continuing right where you left off last time. Or choose to start another new life—you can store up to four different characters.

Importing a WildWorld Life

Have you been playing Animal Crossing: Wild World on your Nintendo DS? If so, you can move your Wild World character over to City Folk, picking up right where you left off. Simply tell Rover that you'd like to move from the DS, and he'll help you set everything up. What a pal!

NOTE

Rover can also let you explore your DS Suitcase, helping you bring items over from your DS. See your Animal Crossing: City Folk instruction manual for complete details on all your DS connectivity options.

Starting Fresh: The Bus Ride

Tell Rover you'd like to start fresh and he'll get really excited. He quickly takes you to the bus, driven by Kapp'n. Your new life is about to begin!

Setting the Time

Rover asks you some very important questions while you ride the bus, the first of which is confirming the time of day and the date. Make sure Rover's got it all right; if he doesn't, correct him.

NOTE

The time of day changes as you play Animal Crossing.

Crossing, just like in real life. This is based on the time and date you set at this point. It'll be dark at night, for example, and most stores will be closed. Snow blankets the ground in winter, and the leaves will turn pretty colors in the fall. Even special seasonal events are tied to the time and date you set. Enter them correctly and your Animal Crossing life will closely mirror your own.

Picking Your Name

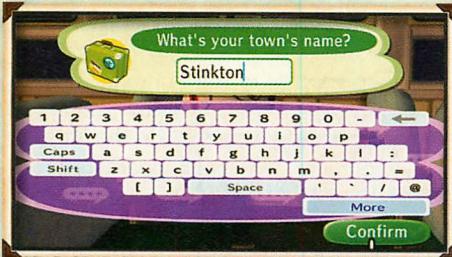

Rover asks for your name next. A special keyboard then appears; point at the letters with your Wii Remote and press \textcircled{A} to type each one, spelling out your name. Use the upper-right backspace arrow if you make a mistake. When you're happy, click the big green "Confirm" button to tell your name to Rover.

After telling Rover your name, tell him that your name is either cool or cute. This question seems random, but it actually determines if your character is a boy (cool) or a girl (cute). The choice is up to you.

Naming Your Town

Rover next asks you where you're going. (A funny question, since you're already headed there.) The keyboard pops up once more, but this time, spell out the name of your town. Go ahead and type in whatever you like—it's your town, after all.

NOTE

You can't change your character's or town's name after the bus ride's over, and all your friends who come to visit will see them, so make sure to pick names that you like!

The ride's almost over, but Rover has a few more questions to help pass the time. He asks if you're excited about moving and if you know where your house is. Rover also wonders what you're planning to do about money. Each answer you give helps decide the finer points of what your character will look like when the bus comes to a stop. The top answers are a bit more upbeat, so you'll likely end up with a more positive outlook (big dreamy eyes, rosy cheeks, a grin on your face, etc.). Pick the bottom answers and your moody glower may begin to upset Rover.

No matter which answers you choose, Rover advises that you visit the town hall the moment you arrive. He then hands you a map of your town, showing you exactly where the town hall is located. You get to keep the map and can check it again whenever you like.

Arriving in Town

Well, here you are! The bus drops you off at the foot of your new stomping grounds. Big things lie ahead, but the first thing to do is visit the town hall. Rover reminds you of this as you step off the bus, but he doesn't come with you. Maybe he's got a hot date in the city?

NOTE

Does your character look a bit odd? Not to worry; there are loads of ways to change your appearance. You can get a new hairstyle in the city, put on hats and glasses, buy and design new clothes—you can even slap one of your Miis' faces onto your character for that personal touch. See the next two chapters, "Out on the Town" and "City Folk," for more on these topics.

Town Map and Menus

Before you mosey over to the town hall, let's take a quick look at Animal Crossing's easy-to-use menu system.

Simply point your Wii Remote at the screen to make a special row of icons appear along the bottom. (Also notice that a clock appears in the upper-left corner when you stand still, showing you the current date and time.) Point at each icon to reveal a word bubble description on its function. Then press \textcircled{A} to call up its menu.

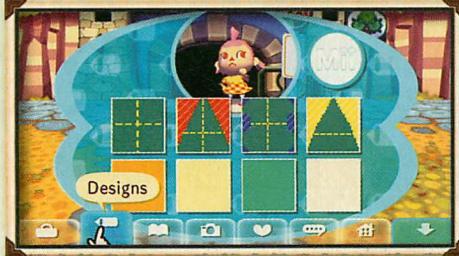

Pockets

carry is stored within your pockets. Click the little briefcase icon to call up the Pockets menu.

As you play, you'll pick up all sorts of neat stuff—furniture, clothes, seashells, fruit, you name it. Everything you ly carrying. Select any design in this menu and you'll have the option to apply it to your clothes, umbrellas, and more. You can even create your own custom designs if you visit the Able Sisters' workshop—see the next chapter, "Out on the Town," for details.

Designs

Click the little pencil icon to call up the Designs menu, where you can review all the clothing designs that you're current-and catch bugs. This menu records all the bugs and fish you've collected. See the "Out on the Town" chapter for more on catching fish and bugs.

Photos

Say "cheese"! Press $\textcircled{1}$ at any time to snap a picture of whatever's happening onscreen. Then click the little camera icon to call up the Photos menu, where you can scope out your shot. Your camera holds only one picture, but you can copy them to an SD card to save them (assuming you've got an SD card slotted into your Wii, of course). A great way to capture those fun moments!

NOTE

Once you've saved a photo to your SD card, you can post it to your Wii message board, or even send it to your friends' Wii message boards! See your instruction manual for details.

Friends

Hit the little heart icon to call up the Friends menu. Here you can keep track of all your online friends who are also enjoying their time with Animal Crossing. You must register friends in order to add them to your roster; check your Animal Crossing: City Folk instruction manual for all the details.

Keyboard

Remember that special keyboard that popped up when Rover asked you your name? You can call it up again at any time just by clicking the little word bubble icon. Anything you type into the keyboard will pop up as a word bubble above your character's head for all to see. This is how you communicate with other online friends.

NOTE

If you own a Wii Speak microphone, you can chat with friends during visits. Your Mic chat options are all accessible from the Friends menu.

Lastly, click the little house icon to call up a map of your current town. The map shows where those all-important buildings are located, including shops, the town hall, the museum, and even your neighbors' homes. Click on any icon on the map to highlight its name in the list to the right. Or click any name in the list to make its map icon start blinking. Use the map to help you get where you want to go.

NOTE

The map lists all of your neighbors by default. If you'd rather view the list of shops and other places of interest, click the orange button below the map. (Hit the blue button to switch back to your list of neighbors.)

Each time you begin a new life in Animal Crossing: City Folk, your town will sport a random layout, though it will always contain the same major shops and buildings. In addition, each new town you create comes with a mix of six random neighbors. Some neighbors will stick around for quite a while; others may decide to pack up and move on. Check the "Neighbors and Friends" chapter for the full list of unique characters you might meet as you play, including special visitors who appear only occasionally.

NOTE

When you're off visiting a friend's town, the map will change to show their town's unique layout. There's no map for the city, but it's small enough that you won't need one.

Visiting the Town Hall

counter and press \textcircled{A} to speak with Pelly (or Phyllis, who works the night shift). She's pleased to meet you and lets you know how many houses are currently up for sale in town. After all, you've got to have a home, right?

Use your map to locate the town hall, a big important building that's open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Step right up to the

NOTE

See that funny-looking character behind Pelly? That's the mayor, Tortimer. You'll get a chance to meet him soon enough!

Pelly shows you a map with each available house circled. Take a good look at each one and consider their relationship to the town's most important buildings. You'll probably want to be as close as possible to Tom Nook's shop (the little leaf icon), but, of course, you're free to take any house you like.

House Hunting

Time to pick your new pad! Each house will be a bit different in terms of interior style and roof color, but they're all pretty much the same.

(though typically bland) style of wallpaper and flooring. Approach the lamp and press \textcircled{A} to turn it on, shedding a bit more light on the place.

NOTE

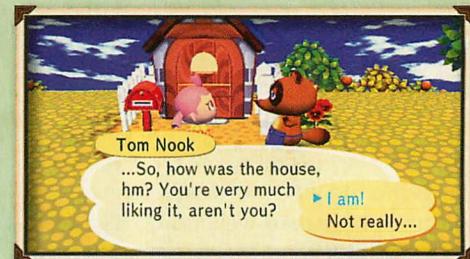

You can't play any tunes on the radio just yet. You must meet a special character, K.K. Slider, in order to unlock some of his hit tracks. See the "Neighbors and Friends" chapter for more info.

Head upstairs to discover a bed and a telephone, all ready for you. Someone sure was thinking ahead!

Yes, this one certainly is... cozy. Each new home comes with a lamp and a radio and will sport a unique (though typi-

A Run-in with Tom Nook

Step outside when you're finished examining the house and you'll come face-to-face with one of Animal Crossing's most recognizable characters, Tom Nook. This friendly raccoon runs a shop in your town, and he's happy to make your acquaintance. He also happens to be the man in charge of selling homes to newcomers and asks if you liked the house. If you're ready to move in, tell Tom you liked the house, then tell him you'll take it. Or don't and keep on hunting.

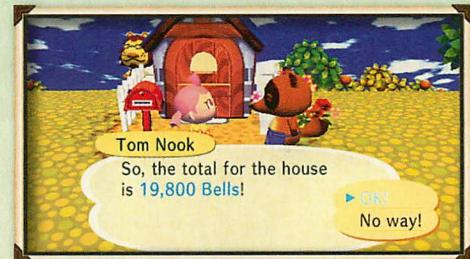

NOTE

Tom Nook will "ambush" you each time you enter a house that's for sale and then he'll leave. He will do this until you make your choice.

Learning to Save

Nook is overjoyed that you've chosen a home and advises that you go to sleep in the bed in the attic whenever you're done playing. This is how you save your progress, so don't forget it!

Debt of Gratitude

Tom Nook has done a lot by helping get you settled, but he's not made of Bells, you know. He soon broaches the delicate issue of payment, saying that you now owe him a whopping 19,800 Bells! There's no way around this debt, but don't worry: Tom's a friendly raccoon, not a devious loan shark. He won't charge you a cent of interest, and you're free to pay back the loan as fast or as slow as you like.

NOTE

Tom will upgrade your home once you pay back the Bells you owe him, making it bigger and better. The bigger your home, the more stuff you can put inside. It pays to pay Tom back.

Tom has no worries about being paid back, but he does insist that you help him out by working part-time at his shop. That will have to wait, however—you still need to introduce yourself to your new neighbors.

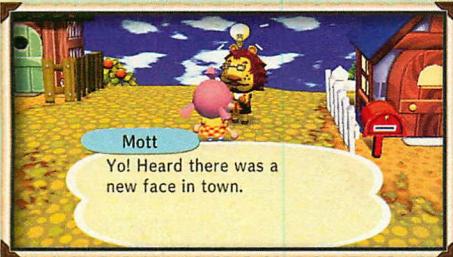

Meeting the Mayor

Use your map to find the town hall again. Step inside to find Mayor Tortimer standing right near the counter, eager to meet his newest potential voter. Chat with Tortimer and he'll ask what your favorite animal is. You'll score big points if you say you like turtles!

The mayor says to come see him during holidays and other special-event days. Chatting with your neighbors usually gives you hints on when these events will occur, but you can also check the "Special Events" chapter for full details.

Meeting Your Neighbors

Feel free to talk to anyone and everyone you see on your way to meeting the mayor. You don't need to talk to neighbors you've already met, however; you just need to say hi to everybody once. Tom Nook won't let you work for him until you've introduced yourself to Mayor Tortimer and all six of your neighbors. Run around saying hey to learn all the latest gossip, along with lots of cool tips, like the value of owning special tools such as shovels and watering cans. File away every little nugget of info for future reference.

Some of your neighbors will be inside their homes; others might be out and about. Use your map to locate each home and see if anyone's inside. If not, you'll find a sign on their front door that hints at where they might be. Most are usually somewhere near their homes, but not always. Use your map to locate Tom Nook's shop after you've met everyone.

NOTE

The next chapter, "Out on the Town," covers all in-town activities in great detail. Check it out for all sorts of useful info.

Working for Tom Nook

Visit Tom Nook's shop to find Tom ready to put you to work. He even has a special uniform for you.

NOTE

If Tom doesn't put you to work, then there's still someone you haven't talked to. Remember: You must talk to the mayor at town hall and all six of your neighbors. Check your map to make sure you haven't left anyone out.

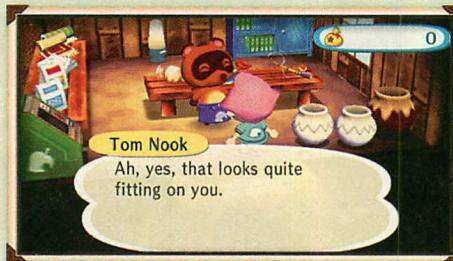

Point your Wii Remote at the screen and highlight the little briefcase icon, then press \textcircled{A} to open the Pockets menu.

Notice that your work uniform is stored within. Move your cursor over the uniform, then press and hold \textcircled{A} . Drag the uniform onto your character and release \textcircled{A} to put it on. You may also simply press \textcircled{A} to select the uniform, then choose "wear" from the little window that pops up.

Green Thumbs

A perfect fit! Now speak to Tom to receive your first true duty: planting some flower seeds and saplings all around his shop. Easy enough!

Step outside and stand anywhere near Tom Nook's shop. Open your pockets and select any bag of seeds or saplings. Choose to plant each one and watch as they disappear from your inventory and begin sprouting up all around. You don't need to put them any place in particular; just make sure to plant them all. Planting in neat rows does make for a very attractive garden, though!

Looks great! Now head back into the store and see if old Tom agrees.

Speedy Delivery

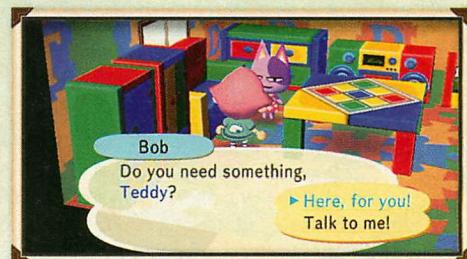

furniture, asking you to deliver it to one of your neighbors. No sweat!

then select the neighbor who's getting the delivery. Their house will start blinking, showing you right where they live. Close the map and run to their house.

Pop inside your neighbor's house and tell them you've got a delivery from Tom Nook. Your pockets will then open automatically; select the furniture (its icon looks like a leaf) Tom gave you and then click the big green "Confirm" button. You'll hand your neighbor the goods, making their day. They become so happy, in fact, that they give you an item in return!

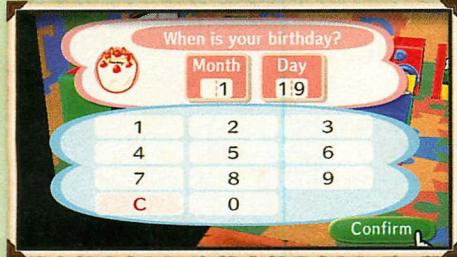

► Here, for you!
Talk to me!

Starting Out

NOTE

The item you receive is random, so you never know what you'll get. Don't you just love surprises?

It's Your Birthday

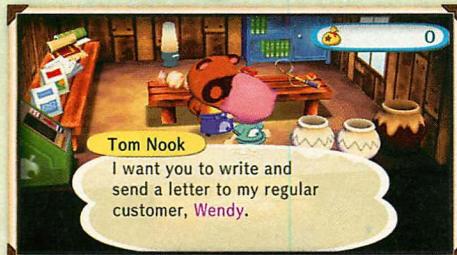

Your neighbor mentions that the item you just delivered is actually a present for someone; they then become curious about your birthday. A special calendar pops up; type in your birthday so that everyone knows when to celebrate it!

NOTE

Your neighbors will bring you a special cake on your birthday, so why not return the favor? Chatting with neighbors is a good way to learn when a birthday's coming up, but you can also check the "Neighbors and Friends" and "Special Events" chapters to discover everyone's birthdays if you like. Don't forget to bring a present!

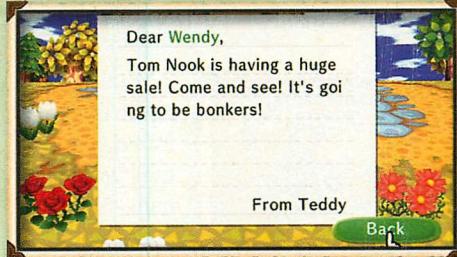

Magnificent Mailer

Return to Tom Nook's shop for your next task: writing a thank-you letter to one of Tom's best customers, a neighbor in town. Tom even gives you some paper to write with. What a guy!

Open your pockets to find the paper Tom gave you. Select the paper, then choose to write a letter. A special menu appears; scroll down the list of neighbors and pick the one to whom Tom asked you to write.

Dear Wendy,
Tom Nook is having a huge sale! Come and see! It's going to be bonkers!

From Teddy

The keyboard pops up. Use it as you've done before to write your letter. You can say anything you want, so go crazy!

You've written your letter; now you just need to mail it. The post office is located at the town hall, so head there straightforward. Stand on the red pad with the envelop pattern to speak with Pelly and ask to send a letter. She asks where you'd like to send your mail; tell her the name of your town, then select the letter you wrote from the special menu that appears. That's it! You're done.

NOTE

Get excited: you'll soon hear back from the neighbor you just wrote.

More Tasks from Tom

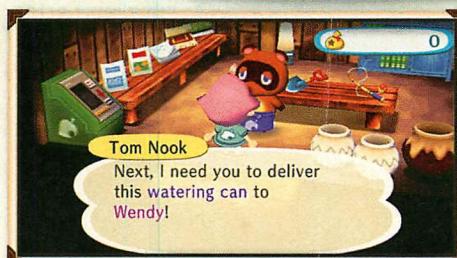

Tom Nook
I need you to deliver this carpet to Boone.

Tom is happy with your work so far, but he's not through with you yet. He asks you to deliver another item to one of your neighbors. Do just what you did before: use your map to find the recipient's house, then hurry off to complete your task. You'll receive another thank-you gift in return.

TIP

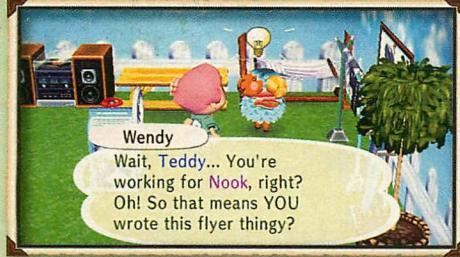

Remember, if the neighbor isn't at home, they're likely somewhere nearby. Run around and track 'em down.

Tom Nook
Next, I need you to deliver this watering can to Wendy!

Tom next asks you to deliver a very important item to another neighbor: a watering can. These are useful tools if gardening's your gig, but you don't get to play with this one—you can only hand it to its rightful owner. Get a move on!

of Tom Nook's shop! Their reply depends on what you wrote, but most neighbors just love being written. Especially after they've just been handed a shiny new watering can!

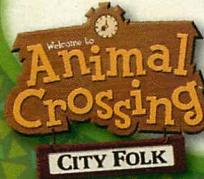

Bulletin Blabber

Don't worry, old Nook is almost done with you. Your final task is to write a special memo on the town's bulletin board, letting everyone know how great Tom Nook's shop is. This is your last chore for Tom, so let's not dally, hmm?

The bulletin board stands right next to the town hall. Approach it and press \textcircled{A} to take a closer look. Read the instructions and then press the big green "Write" button to get to work.

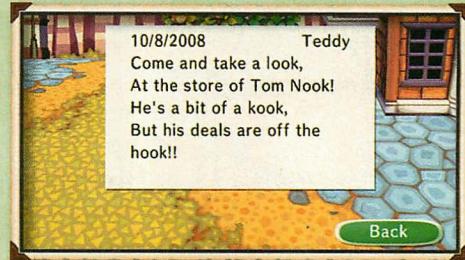

first day here in town. Tom has even knocked 1,400 Bells off your home loan for all your help—now you just have 18,400 to pay back!

who visits your town can read your message, so make it a good one.

No More Chores

Return to your boss for some really cool news: You're all done working! No more chores for you, kiddo—it's on to bigger and better things.

Freedom!

Free at last! Ahh, feels good, yes? Working for old Tom wasn't all that bad, and you've sure learned a lot on your

NOTE

Once you've earned some Bells, you can visit the town hall and use the special ABD machine to pay back the money you owe Tom. Flip to the next chapter for tips on how to make some fast Bells in Animal Crossing.

This is a very special moment: The whole Animal Crossing world has just opened up to you. You're now free to go anywhere and do anything you like, and there is plenty to see and do. Keep reading to discover all the fun that awaits you!

OUT ON THE TOWN

Wondering what to do with that shiny new shovel you've bought? Feeling the urge to earn quick Bells? You've come to the right place! Once you've finished working for Tom Nook, you're free to do whatever you like in town. There's all sorts of cool stuff to do, and this chapter covers it all—from visiting shops to fiddling with nature, and so much more.

Time Keeps on Ticking

Animal Crossing is just like real life: Time passes by whether you're out there playing or not. Your neighbors and friends will go about with their daily lives with or without you—but of course, their lives are always more exciting when you're around. Your town will grow and change as time goes on, and the seasons change as well: Snow falls in the winter months, and flowers bloom in spring and summer. Day turns to night just as it does in your real life, at exactly the same pace. All of this is possible because Animal Crossing runs off the time and date you gave to Rover during your first bus ride into town.

NOTE

Rover always confirms the time of day and date each time you begin the game. If you entered the wrong info or want to change it, save your game and then reset so you may speak with Rover.

Here are just a few examples of the many different things that happen as time putters along:

- Trees and flowers will blossom and grow in accordance with the season. Pretty!
- Weeds will grow too. Gross! Pull them up.
- Shops will put up brand-new items for sale—buy while supplies last.
- Bugs and fish will appear and vanish—catch 'em while they're active!
- Seashells will wash up on shore, and new dig spots will appear about the ground.
- Stores will close as evening falls, and neighbors will tuck into bed.
- Special visitors may chance upon your town (see the "Neighbors and Friends" chapter for details).
- Town tournaments and events will be held as well (see the "Special Events" chapter for the full scoop).

As you can see, life in Animal Crossing really is a lot like life in the real world. Keep this in mind as you play!

Daytime

Daytime is for fun and activity with friends and neighbors. Stores open for business and folks are out wandering about. The fish are biting and the bugs are buggin'. Get out there and mingle!

Nighttime

On the other hand, things really quiet down at night. Most shops will close up during the wee hours, and your neighbors are likely to be fast asleep. Of course, some characters are real night owls and appear only during the evenings—like that world-famous rockin' dog, K.K. Slider. Certain bugs and fish may only come out during the evenings as well.

The Four Seasons

Spring

Summer

Fall

Winter

Seasons change in Animal Crossing just as they do in the real world, and this affects all sorts of stuff. Special events are tied to certain times of the year, for example, and you'll find your in-store clothing options vary based on the current season. In addition, most bugs and fish appear only during specific months. Flip to the "Special Events" chapter to discover what each month holds in store for you.

Seeing the Sights

You've got a whole town to explore, but where to begin? That's up to you, of course, but we'll start by looking at each store and building.

Your Pad

There's no place like home. And boy is it ever humble! That's okay, though; you just moved in. Soon your pad will be decked out in all sorts of cool-looking furniture, flooring, and wallpaper.

Placing Furniture

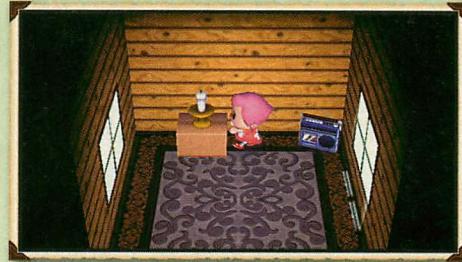

Remember those gifts your neighbors gave to you while you worked for Tom Nook? Let's set them down and free up some space in your pockets. You can place practically anything inside your home; simply open your pockets, select the items you wish to place, then drop them. Presto! They appear on the floor nearby.

NOTE

Tom Nook will offer to upgrade your home after you pay off your loan to him, making it bigger. This gives you more room to place even more cool stuff. Check the "Home Sweet Home" chapter for further details.

Moving Stuff Around

Cramming your house full of stuff is good fun, but you'll be covered in clutter if you don't organize things. Walk up to any piece of furniture and hold \textcircled{A} to grab it; then use the analog stick to drag it back and forth or spin it around.

NOTE

The analog stick controls will change based on the direction you're facing. If you're facing north or south when you grab an object, pressing up and down on the analog stick will make you shove it forward and backward, while pressing right spins the object in place. If you're facing east or west, however, pressing the stick up and down will spin the object, while pressing right or left will shove it around. Keep this in mind and you'll be shoving furniture like a champ!

TIP

Some pieces of furniture let you stack stuff on top, such as tables—this is a good way to maximize your living space. Other pieces of furniture let you store stuff inside, like cabinets and dressers. Most items can be used in some way; walk up to them and press \textcircled{A} to see what happens!

Saving Your Game

Scamper upstairs to visit your home's attic, where your bed and telephone are kept. These are two very important items, so let's check 'em out.

When you're ready to call it a day, stand next to your bed and press \textcircled{A} to snuggle in. You're asked if you'd like to save your game and quit, or keep on playing. Choose to save and quit to record all the neat stuff you've done and return to the real world.

Using the Phone

Mosey over to your telephone and press \textcircled{A} to call your buddy Rover, who's always eager to help you out.

Rover can adjust a handful of game options for you, like the way the characters' voices sound and how the keyboard works. Check your instruction manual for more on these options.

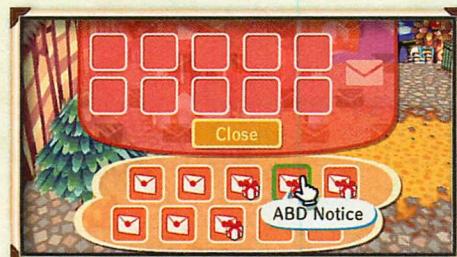

Checking Your Mail

Step outside to check your mailbox and see if anyone's written to you. Neighbors and friends will sometimes send you letters, especially if you write them first. You can also receive important messages from the Happy Room Academy after speaking with Lyle in the city. Mail is neat stuff, so check your box often!

If someone's being really nice, they might include gifts in letters they send you. You can include gifts in letters that you write as well. To open your gifts, you first need to move your letters from your mailbox to your pockets. Then you're free to open the letter and claim your goodie.

NOTE

You don't need to move your letters out of your mailbox to read them, only to open their gifts.

NOTE

You need paper to write letters, which you can buy at Tom Nook's shop. You might also find paper in the lost-and-found or recycling bin—see the "Town Hall" and "Town Gate" sections for details. After writing a letter, simply visit the post office at the town hall to mail it. No stamps necessary!

Town Hall

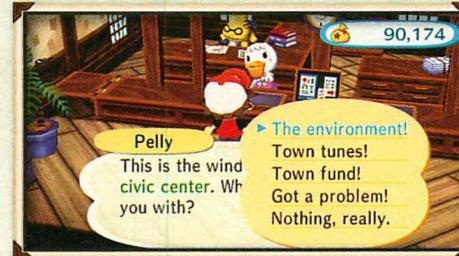

Open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

You visited the town hall a few times while working for Tom Nook, but there's much more to do here now that you're on your own.

Civic Center

The town hall houses the civic center. Walk up to the counter and stand on the green mat; then press \textcircled{A} to speak with Pelly or Phyllis

(depending on the time of day). They'll ask what you'd like help with, and will give you the following options:

The Environment: Listen to your neighbors' comments on how they think your town looks, and hear tips on how you can improve things. See the "Gardening" section for tips on how to keep your town looking super.

Town Tunes: Bring up a nifty song editor that lets you create your own background music. See what sorts of hip and catchy tunes you can write!

Town Fund: Choose to donate Bells to the town fund. Good things come to those who give! (See the sidebar for details.)

Got a Problem: Complain about a neighbor, or ask for help when you're locked out of your home.

Donations and Town Upgrades

Donating to your town fund may seem like a waste of good Bells, but such is not the case! Special things will happen when you donate lots of Bells:

200,000 Bells: A new bridge will be built in town. This makes getting around a little easier.

500,000 Bells: A fountain will be built in town. This is really special, because the fountain actually helps you get a very valuable item—the Golden Axe! See the "Gardening" section for details.

1,000,000 Bells: Your town will get either a windmill or a lighthouse, and you get to pick which one. Your town can't have both, so choose carefully. Have a friend in another town pick the other option so you can enjoy them both!

That's a whole lot of Bells to donate, but you don't have to do it all alone. Donations from all characters who live in your town go into the same fund, so you can reach those milestones faster than you think. Also, all characters living in town get a say in where the new additions will be built. It's all about community in Animal Crossing!

Personal Donation Gifts

Town upgrades stop at the 1,000,000 Bell mark, but you're awarded the following special gifts if you keep on donating Bells to your town fund. Unlike town upgrade donations, each player must donate these amounts in order to earn these special prizes.

100,000,000 Bells: Green feather

200,000,000 Bells: Blue feather

300,000,000 Bells: Yellow feather

400,000,000 Bells: Red feather

500,000,000 Bells: Purple feather

600,000,000 Bells: White feather

700,000,000 Bells: Rainbow feather

Now that's a whole lotta Bells! These prizes don't bestow any special benefits, but they do grant you the ultimate Animal Crossing bragging rights!

Post Office

As you've learned from your dealings with Tom Nook, the town hall also houses the post office. Stand on the red mat and speak with Pelly or Phyllis to send out letters. You can also store letters you're carrying at the post office for safekeeping, which frees up space in your pockets. If you like, you're also free to send messages to your Wii's message board, which you can access through the main Wii channels that appear each time you turn on your system.

TIP

Pockets overflowing?
Running out of storage space in your home? Write letters to your future self and attach gifts to them, then choose to save your letters at the post office!

Recycling Bin

Your town's recycling bin is located inside the town hall as well. Stand in front of the big green bin to the right and press

Ⓐ to peek inside. There's a chance that you'll find paper there—if you find any paper, grab some so you can write letters to friends and neighbors.

NOTE

The recycling bin's contents are emptied promptly at 6:00 a.m. every Monday and Thursday. Don't let any goodies inside go to waste!

ABD Machine

The ABD machine is another important object found in the town hall. Step right up to where it

Tom Nook's Shop

Open 7 days a week (hours vary; see "Store Upgrades")

As you know, Tom Nook runs a friendly in-town shop stocked with all your basic needs. Tom sells practically everything here, from seeds and paper to tools, furniture, and wallpaper. He gets new stuff in every day, so check back often!

Note

Your ABD account balance is stored on a special shopping card. You must carry this card in your pockets to make deposits or withdrawals. If you ever misplace your card, visit the ABD machine and ask to have a new card reissued to you. Don't worry; all your Bells will still be safe and sound!

Note

You must use the ABD machine to pay off your debts to Tom Nook. Bells you hand over to him are for in-store purchases only!

Deposit Gifts

Deposit lots of Bells into the ABD machine and you'll earn the following gifts from the bank:

10,000 Bells: Box of tissues

1,000,000 Bells: Piggy bank

999,999,999 Bells: ABD machine

The box of tissues and piggy bank are just for show, but you can set the ABD machine in your home, giving you easy access to all your savings!

Bulletin Board

The bulletin board stands just outside the town hall. Check it every day to see if any special messages have been left by friends and neighbors. Their bulletins will tell you all about upcoming special events and the like. You can also write messages on the bulletin board, just as you did for Tom Nook when you were part-timing it at his shop.

Spotlight Items and Seasonal Gifts

Once in a while, Nook will put the spotlight on certain items in his shop. These are rare goods that don't come around too often, so buy them if you can! At certain times of the year, Tom will also display unique holiday items like festive trees for a limited time. Don't let these seasonal goodies pass you by!

Selling Stuff

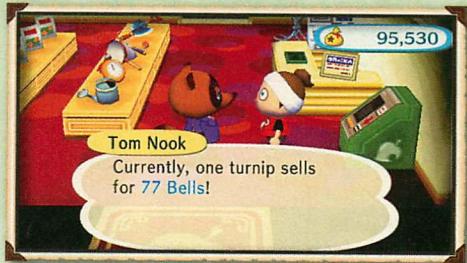

Too much stuff rattling around in your pockets? Pay Tom a visit and sell off anything you don't need for some fast

Bells. Certain items are worth more than others, of course, but Nook always pays well for stuff that you sell. Select everything you want to sell and see what Tom's prepared to offer. Then decide if you want to strike the deal or not.

NOTE

All items sell for one-quarter of their full purchase price at Tom Nook's stores.

The Turnip Trade

Tom Nook will also buy turnips from you, which are special items you can buy from Joan when you see her wandering through your town. (Joan appears every Sunday morning from 6:00 a.m. until noon.) The prices of turnips change each day, but you can always ask Tom how much he's prepared to spend on them (except on Sundays—Tom's lips are sealed tight when it comes to buying turnips on Sundays). Buying turnips from Joan and selling them to Tom Nook can be a great way to earn fast Bells, but it's possible to lose money in the deal—on certain days, Tom may offer you less for turnips than you originally paid for them!

CAUTION

You're free to hang on to turnips while you wait for Tom's buying price to rise, but don't wait too long—turnips start to spoil after just one week!

NOTE

Check the "Neighbors and Friends" chapter for more info on Joan and other special visitors.

Customer Loyalty Perks

Tom Nook knows the value of customer loyalty, and he rewards his best customers in special ways. Do lots of business with Tom Nook to earn the following benefits.

Store Upgrades

Tom's store starts off small, but as you spend more and more Bells there on merchandise, he gradually upgrades to bigger stores that offer better selection. Here's the scoop on each shop upgrade:

Nook's Cranny (open 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.): Tom's store begins as a cozy shop that offers the basics.

Nook 'n' Go (open 7:00 a.m. to 1:00 a.m.): After you spend 25,000 Bells with Tom Nook, he closes his doors for a day to renovate his shop into a bigger convenience store that sports a better selection of goods and stays open for longer hours.

Nookway (open 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.): Buy a total of 90,000 Bells' worth of goods at Tom's store and he'll close down once more to upgrade his shop into a sizable supermarket. More floor space equals better selection!

Nookington's (open 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.): This final store upgrade requires you to spend a whopping 240,000 Bells with Tom Nook. Once this milestone has been reached, Tom shuts down one last time to bring you his biggest and best shop—a two-story department store called Nookington's. This store's so huge, Tom's nephews have to help him run it!

Nook's Points

Tom's a savvy guy, and he knows how to keep customers coming back: by offering them special rewards!

For every 100 Bells you spend in Tom's shop, you earn 1 special reward point, and on special days, Tom offers bonus points as well (he'll let you know when these special deals are going on). You'll earn special discounts at Tom's store as you build up points, and you can spend points to win special prizes!

Step up to the green machine that appears in all of Tom's shops to check your points and see if you qualify for a present. Here's what you can get:

Membership Levels

6,500	Midna's mask
10,000	Kart

TIP

Check the point tracking machine each day and select "Visitor Points" to earn three free points just for visiting Tom Nook's shop!

Personal Catalog

Another reason to shop with Tom Nook is the personal catalog he keeps for you. Tom records everything you've purchased from his shop, along with everything you've sold to him. Speak with Tom and ask to see your catalog to browse each and every one of these items. See something you wish you hadn't gotten rid of? Go ahead and order it, and Tom will ship the item straight to your home.

NOTE

Tom mails you stuff that you order from your catalog, so you'll need to wait a day or so before it arrives. This is also the only way you can get a look at Nook Paper—the special paper Tom sends along with your order.

Certain special items cannot be bought through the catalog. These are always marked as "not for sale." Don't sell or trade anything you can't reorder, or you risk never owning it again.

the selling.) Stop by if you want to update your wardrobe. The sisters sell a unique selection of shirts, hats, glasses, and other clothing accessories. You can even create your own designs to wear about or put them on display to start a hot new fashion trend!

Creating Designs

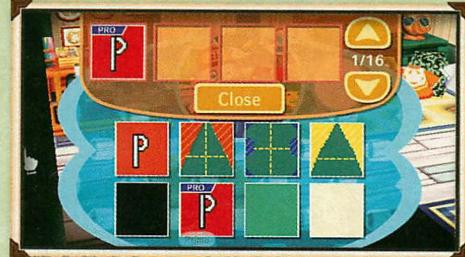

The design editor is a cool way to build your own custom designs. Visit the Able Sisters' workshop and speak with Mabel, then ask to make a Pro design. You'll need to shell out 350 Bells for materials, but that's a small price to pay for creative freedom! Pay Mabel to fire up the design editor, then have at it.

TIP

Pro designs let you apply different patterns to not only the front of a shirt, but also to the sleeves and back. Play with the editor and try it yourself!

Storing Designs

if you ask. This is a great way to save all your designs for future use.

Displaying Designs

The display racks in the middle of the Able Sisters' shop allow customers to show off their own custom designs, hoping to start a fashion trend. Walk up to one and press Ⓐ , and Mabel will ask if you'd like to buy the design that's on display or switch it out. Displaying your own designs is totally free, so why not do it? Who knows, some of your neighbors might even start wearing your stuff!

TIP

Visit the Able Sisters when exploring your friends' towns, and display your designs to start a global fashion trend!

Making a Statement

The Museum

Open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

Wondering what to do with all those fossils, bugs, fish, and paintings you've been collecting? If you're not greedy for Bells, consider donating them to your town's museum. Just pop inside and speak with Blathers, a friendly owl who runs the museum both day and night. He might be sleeping during the daylight hours, but don't worry—he never gets mad when you wake him.

Each time you donate a new item to the museum, Blathers becomes overjoyed and begins spouting an informative description of your donation. The donation is then placed in the appropriate exhibit room. Donate lots of stuff to Blathers' museum and impress all who visit your town!

NOTE

Each time you dig up a fossil, you won't know what it is until you have Blathers examine it. If it turns out to be something you've already found, sell the fossil to Tom Nook for extra Bells! Tom will just discard fossils that Blathers hasn't identified.

Some paintings are actually forgeries. Blathers is a sharp guy, and he can always spot a fake. You can't donate forged paintings—but they might look nice in your home.

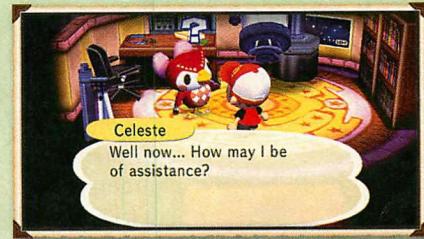

Everyone who lives in your town can donate to the museum. To see who's given what, ask Blathers about the

Museum Model

It pays to donate—the person who gives the most to their museum will receive a special item for their effort: the museum model!

The Observatory

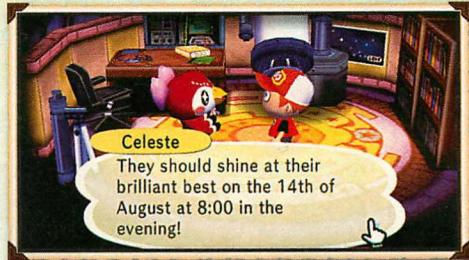

Pop up to the museum's top floor to visit the observatory, run by Blathers' sister, Celeste. Here you may gaze upon the wonders of the stars at night, viewing constellations made by you and other folks who live in your town.

Eying the night sky through Celeste's telescope lets you build your own unique constellations. It works just like a game of connect the dots; link stars to form cool patterns.

Constellations you create will appear in the sky on certain evenings. Celeste will tell you exactly when to look for them. Now anyone who comes to your town can enjoy your sweet skyline!

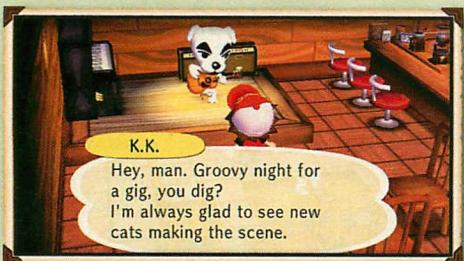

The Roost

The museum also houses the Roost—a chill little café with a stage for live entertainment. Grab a seat at the counter and speak with Brewster to get a nice hot cup of coffee. Each cup will run you 200 Bells, but it's sooo good. Just make sure to drink each cup while it's hot, or you'll get a real scolding from Brewster!

Gyroid Storage

Visit the Roost on seven different occasions and buy seven cups of coffee from Brewster. Drink each cup before it cools. Brewster will be grateful for your patronage and will open the Roost's storage for you, giving you extra space to stash your Gyroids!

very talented guitarist by the name of K.K. Slider. Visit the Roost every Saturday after 8:00 p.m. to hook up with K.K. and ask him to play you a tune. After the show, K.K. will slip you a free bootleg of his song. Pop the track into your home stereo to listen to it again anytime you like!

Lots of cool characters like to hang out in the Roost. Rover and Kapp'n may pop in from time to time, as will a

TIP

Check the "Neighbors and Friends" chapter for a complete list of K.K. Slider's music tracks.

Town Gate

Open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

The town gate is the place to go when you just need to get away. Here you can skip town and visit your friends from all around the world, or invite your friends into your town.

Friend Codes

Before you can visit other players' towns or invite friends over, you must first ask Copper (the watchdog on the right) to issue you a special friend code. Exchange friend codes with your pals in the real world, and all sorts of multiplayer thrills will open up to you.

TIP

Point your Wii Remote at your screen and select the friends icon to call up the Friends menu. Here you may view your unique friend code and keep tabs on all the friends you've registered so far. It's all super easy, but you can always check your Animal Crossing instruction manual if you need any help.

Leaving Town

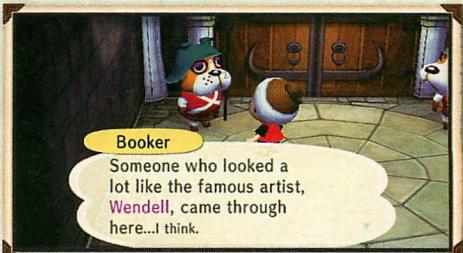

If you wish to travel, speak with Copper, the watchdog who stands to the right of your town's gate. He'll ask you whether you wish to venture out by way of Nintendo Wi-Fi Connection or via the DS Suitcase. You need to exchange friend codes with a buddy in order to travel by way of Wi-Fi Connection, but all you need is a Nintendo DS to use the DS Suitcase option. Check your instruction manual for all the nifty details.

Inviting Friends

You must tell Copper that you're expecting company before any faraway friends can visit your town. Make sure you've exchanged friend codes with your pals, then let Copper know when you want to invite a visitor. At the same time, your friends should visit their town's main gate and tell Copper that they wish to leave. The two watchdogs will take a moment to clear things with each other, and you'll have some company before you know it!

If you own the Wii Speak microphone, you can chat with your friends during visits. It's way faster than using the keyboard! See your instruction manual for details.

Checking for Visitors

Booker is the other guard at the town gate. He's a bit nervous, but he can also offer you lots of help.

Ask him what's new, and he'll tell you if anyone special has passed through the gate recently. This is the easiest way to tell if any special visitors are currently wandering about your town.

TIP

If Booker says someone's passed through recently, start looking for them right away. Special visitors don't come around very often, and they tend to leave pretty quickly. Check the "Neighbors and Friends" chapter for the full scoop on all the special visitors you can meet.

Lost and Found

Ask Booker if something's lost and he'll give you a peek at the town's lost-and-found. None of this stuff will be yours, but you're free to grab whatever's in there. People are always losing things, so check this often to see what may have popped up.

Changing the Town Flag

Your town flag is a symbol of pride. It flaps in the breeze near the town gate, and it lets everyone know where they're at the moment they step off the bus. Speak with Booker to receive the option of changing your town's flag. Slap a special design onto it and give your town that personal touch.

The Bus Stop

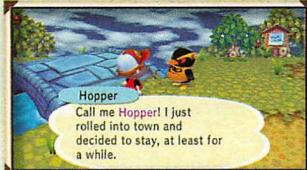

Life in town is usually great, but you'll soon yearn for the hustle and bustle of the big city before you know it. Head to the bus stop whenever you wish to take a spin to the city, which stands just outside the town gate. Look at the bus stop's sign and you'll have the option to ride the bus. Kapp'n will soon pull up and ferry you off to the city without delay.

Fun with Neighbors

Spending quality time with your neighbors is a big part of life in Animal Crossing. Every neighbor who lives in your town is a unique individual with their own attitudes and outlooks on life. Some are pleasant and polite, and others may be grumpy and rude, but one thing's for sure: you'll have a grand old time hanging out with each one!

Easy Come, Easy Go

Folks are always moving around in Animal Crossing: neighbors come and neighbors go. How you choose to interact with them plays a big role in whether or not they choose to stick around. Work hard at forming friendships and your neighbors are likely to stay for quite a while. Ignore your neighbors or complain about them at the town hall and they're likely to pack up and move along. Of course, sometimes that's just what you want!

TIP

Check out the "Neighbors and Friends" chapter for a complete list of all the characters who live in your town, and get info on the many special visitors who may happen by.

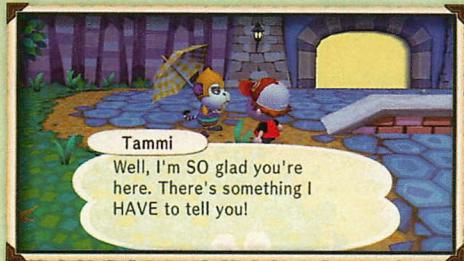

NOTE

The status of your town also affects your neighbors' attitudes toward staying. Keep the place looking nice and your neighbors are likely to stay—you may even attract newcomers. Ignore your town upkeep chores and some neighbors may decide to split. See the "Gardening" section for tips on how to keep your town looking lovely.

Forming Friendships

Neighbors are a source of big-time laughs, so you probably don't want them to leave. Just follow a few simple steps and you'll quickly form strong bonds with your neighborhood pals.

Talking and Listening

lets them know you care about them, but watch out: Your responses can make a friendly chat turn ugly if you're not careful! Be polite and honest with your neighbors, and they're sure to warm up to you.

Talking with your neighbors is also a good way to learn little tips and tricks about life in Animal Crossing.

Neighborhood pals usually know all about upcoming events, special visitors, and even which sorts of bugs and fish might be around this time of year. You may even receive a gift just for chatting them up! It pays to keep in touch, so don't be a stranger.

Popping in to Say Hello neighbor's house has a sign out front that tells you who lives there, and there's no need to be shy. Walk right in and say hello!

A good friend is always there to listen, so make sure to talk to your favorite neighbors at least once every day. This

Nickname Game

Once your neighbors take a liking to you, they may want to give you a nickname. Humor them and play along. They'll call you

Running Errands

Neighbors may ask you to do special favors from time to time, like deliver a present to someone special. They might even ask you to visit another neighbor and get something back that belongs to them. Other times, they just need your help in tracking down certain pieces of furniture, bugs, or fish for their collections. Try to help your neighbors whenever they mention needing help with some sort of errand—there's usually a reward in it for you.

NOTE

Some neighbors may ask that you complete certain errands before a specific time of day. Don't miss the deadline or you'll blow your chance at scoring a gift!

Finding Keys

Your neighbors can be a little careless at times, and some may lose their house keys. If a neighbor

TIP

Buy medicine whenever you can and keep some in your home so you'll always have it when you need it.

TIP

Some keys are really tough to find. Listen to what your neighbor says and be creative about finding it. For example, if they say they dropped it near a river, you may need to cast a line and fish it out!

Feeling sick and icky is no fun at all. If your neighbors ever tell you they're feeling ill, run to Tom Nook's shop and buy them

Some neighbors think they're pretty good at certain outdoor activities, like catching bugs or reeling in fish. You may receive friendly challenges from your pals, like who can nab a certain bug the fastest, or who can hook the biggest fish. Take your friends up on these little wagers if you like, and follow the advice in the next section for tips on every outdoor activity.

Outdoor Activities

Most of your time in Animal Crossing will be spent in the great outdoors, enjoying the beauty and wonder of Mother Nature. There's a ton of outdoor activities to enjoy, and here we'll explore each one.

Tools of the Trade

You need special tools to enjoy most outdoor activities. Tom Nook is happy to sell you these items from his shop, but he only carries a few tools at a time. Check his store daily to see if any new tools are for sale.

Enjoying the Ocean

When those hot summer days start making you sweat, why not stroll down to the ocean and cool off? Lots of stuff washes up on shore—mostly seashells and the like. Cruising the beach for bounties is a good way to earn a few Bells; the museum doesn't have a seashell exhibit, so sell every shell you find to Tom Nook.

Go Nuts for Coconuts

Every once in a while, a coconut from a faraway island washes up on your town's shore. This is a special treat, because no trees in your town will ever grow coconuts. Snatch any coconuts you see along the beach, then dig a hole and plant the coconut near the beach to begin growing a special coconut tree. When the tree grows tall, you can shake down its fruit! Then you can plant more trees and sell your rare fruits to Tom Nook for big Bells.

NOTE

You need a shovel to dig holes and plant fruit, and you can buy it from Tom Nook. See the "Gardening" section for tips on how to build and care for trees and flowers.

Gardening

Growing and caring for trees and flowers is both fun and rewarding. The better your town looks, the happier your neighbors and friends will be. Follow these simple steps to keep your town looking great.

Planting Flowers and Trees

Tom Nook (or swipe some from the lost-and-found), then walk around town, planting each one wherever you like. You don't need any tools to plant flowers and saplings, so you can start beautifying your town as soon as you please.

NOTE

Flowers sprout up the moment you plant them, but it takes time for saplings to grow into trees.

Grooming the Perfect Town

Follow these three steps to get your town looking its best:

1. Use a shovel to dig out a 16 x 16 square (16 holes down, 16 holes across).
2. Make sure there are between 12 and 15 trees, 6 to 10 flowers, and no weeds in the area you've dug out (plant stuff if necessary).
3. Fill in the rest of the holes you dug (stand next to the holes and press B or Z to quickly kick them full of dirt).

That's it! Every town has enough space for 25 of these 16 x 16 square areas, so you've got your work cut out for you. Once all your trees are fully grown, visit the town hall and ask Pelly or Phyllis about the environment. You'll be overjoyed at what your neighbors are saying!

Fruit Trees

Fruit trees take a bit more effort to plant, but the rewards can be great. First, buy a shovel from Tom Nook. Then walk around town, shaking fruit trees to knock down their fruit. Pick up each piece of fruit, then dig some holes with your shovel. Open your pockets and plant the fruit you've found into the holes to make a little fruit tree sprout up.

Tom Nook pays Bells for any fruit you sell him, but he doesn't pay much for fruit that's already growing in your town.

Different towns grow different fruit, however, so visit your friends' towns and trade different types of fruit with them. Plant their fruit in your town when you return home, and when the trees grow big, you can shake down more fruit, grow more trees, and sell your new fruit to Tom Nook for lots more Bells!

Maintaining Your Garden

Planting trees and flowers is easy, but you've got to care for your little sprouts if you want them to grow up big and strong. Buy a watering can from Tom Nook, and give your saplings and flowers a good watering every once in a while. If you see your trees and flowers turn brown and wither, you're not watering them often enough.

CAUTION

Don't run near flowers and saplings; you might ruin them! Slow down and walk through gardens instead.

Watering Can Upgrades

Watering your flowers and saplings can be a lot of work, but these special watering cans help make it easier.

Silver Watering Can

Buy 50 bags of seed from Tom Nook to earn this improved watering can, which sports a bigger watering radius for faster gardening.

Gold Watering Can

Maintain a perfect-looking town for a full 15 days and then speak to Pelly at the town hall to receive a gold watering can for all your hard work. See the previous "Grooming the Perfect Town" sidebar for tips on how to reach this goal.

Pulling Weeds

you don't want your neighbors to complain. Pulling weeds is easy: just stand next to one and press B.

Of course, there are some little sprouts you don't want around. Weeds will pop up all over the place, and you'd best pull them up if

Land Clearance

You may want to pull up flowers or chop down trees as well. Stand next to flowers on the ground and press B to tuck them into your pockets. Trees are a bit harder to root: Buy an axe from Tom Nook and chop them down with a few whacks, then use a shovel to dig out their trunks.

Axe Upgrades

Careful how you cut: The normal axe will break after a while. There are better axes out there, though, which aren't as likely to break.

Silver Axe

Donate enough Bells to your town fund to get a fountain built in your town, then throw a normal axe into the fountain. A special character named Serena may appear and reward you with the silver axe, which never breaks.

Golden Axe

Toss your normal axe into the fountain for a chance at scoring a golden axe from Serena, which never breaks and cuts down trees even faster than normal.

Mushroom Hunter

Mushrooms tend to grow in the shade of trees, but only in November. Pluck mushrooms when you see them to stash them in your pockets and keep your town looking pretty. Tom Nook will buy mushrooms from you as well—another good reason to plant lots of trees around town!

Magic Mushrooms

There's more to some mushrooms than meets the eye. Sometimes when you pull them up, you get a special piece of mushroom furniture! This is the only way to collect furniture from the Mushroom series.

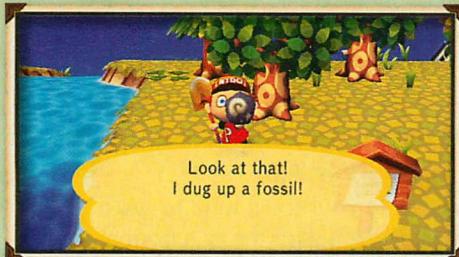

Digging for Loot

Buy a shovel from Tom Nook to dig up all sorts of neat stuff. Shovels don't cost much and can help you earn lots of easy Bells, so buy one as soon as possible.

Dig Spots

Have you noticed those strange little star-shaped cracks in the ground? These are dig spots, and they appear from time to time. Whenever you see these cracks, whip out your shovel and dig at them to uncover a special treat!

Fossils

Look at that!
I dug up a fossil!

Many dig spots contain fossils; to learn what sort of fossils they are, bring them to the museum. Blathers happens to be a fossil fanatic, and he'll be happy to identify them for you. Once he has identified a fossil, you can donate it to the museum for the benefit of your town. Or sell your fossils to Tom Nook—he'll pay top Bells for them.

NOTE

You can also place fossils in your home, building your own personal museum.

Gyroids

Look at that!
I dug up a mini bowtoid!

Gyroids are unique treasures that also come from the ground. Place these zany objects in your home and laugh as they dance and shake. The museum doesn't take Gyroid donations, but Tom Nook will buy Gyroids from you for a good price.

NOTE

Gyroids and fossils are common finds, but you may also unearth other random prizes with the shovel, such as furniture. Be sure to investigate every dig spot you see!

TIP

Check the "Collectibles" chapter for complete lists of every Gyroid and fossil in the game.

Shovel Upgrades

The standard shovel gets the job done, but the silver and gold varieties look a lot cooler and are a bit more useful.

Silver Shovel

Swing by the city for a chance at visiting Resetti's Surveillance Center, where the silver shovel can be found. The silver shovel gives you a 10% chance for more Bells when you go around smacking rocks. See the "City Folk" chapter for details.

Golden Shovel

Buy two shovels and bury one of them in the ground in a place you won't forget. Wait four days and then dig up the shovel to find it transformed into one made of solid gold! With a golden shovel, you can bury Bells to grow special trees that bear Bell bags instead of fruit. Cha-ching!

Fishing

I caught a bluegill!
Now that takes some skill!

Buy a fishing rod from good old Tom Nook and you can catch all sorts of aquatic animals (and even a few bits of junk dropped by lazy litterbugs). Whenever you see a shadow moving about the water's surface, press \textcircled{A} to cast your line next to it. Wait patiently until the fish swims up and tugs your bobber under the water, then quickly press \textcircled{A} or pull back on your Wii Remote to reel in your catch. Blathers is always looking for fishy donations, or you might want to place fish in your house to start your own aquarium. Tom Nook pays Bells for fish as well.

TIP

Cast your bobber within a fish's line of sight for the best chance of attracting it. If the fish doesn't bite, reel in and try casting in a slightly different spot.

NOTE

Fish usually nibble at the bait a few times before taking a bite. Wait until your bobber dips all the way under before reeling in.

Where Fish Frolic

Certain types of fish will only appear at certain times of the year, and most fish have a special place they like to swim. Here are some examples of the different places where fish like to hang out.

In the ocean

By the waterfall

Along the river or river's mouth

In the closed holding pond

In the big pond made by the river

you just need to snare bugs with your net to catch them, and they usually won't bug off if you miss. Like fish, bugs can be donated to your local museum, placed inside your home, or sold to Tom Nook.

Bug-Ridden Hangouts

Common bugs can be found all over the place, but tracking down some of the more rare types takes real effort. Here are a few examples of where bugs can be found.

Out in the open

On flowers, rocks, and trees

Near rotting fruit and vegetables

Inside trees (give 'em a shake)

Fishing Rod Upgrades

Fishing is very relaxing, but it can also be pretty time-consuming. Seek out these enhanced fishing rods if you want to speed up the process.

Silver Fishing Rod

Tom Nook periodically sells silver fishing rods at his shop. These rods' lures are more attractive to fish, helping you land catches more often.

Golden Fishing Rod

Catch each and every type of fish to earn the golden fishing rod as a reward for your effort. This ultimate rod is a real fish magnet!

TIP

Check the "Collectibles" chapter to discover all the different types of fish and bugs, with info on when they like to come out.

Bug Hunting

Score a net from Tom Nook's shop and you'll enter the high-thrills world of bug collecting. Keep your net in your pocket wherever you go and you'll be able to snatch every creepy crawler you see. Bug hunting is a bit easier than fishing, as

Net Upgrades

The standard net is fine for some, but for the extreme bug-hunter, the following high-end nets make all the difference.

Silver Net

Once in a while, Tom Nook will stock silver nets, which sport a slightly bigger net than the normal variety. This helps you catch bugs with greater ease.

Golden Net

Catch each and every bug and you'll earn yourself the golden net, which makes bug catching a breeze.

Slingshot Antics

Buy a slingshot from Tom Nook and you can get into all sorts of trouble. Well, not really, but you can shoot special presents out of the sky! Keep your slingshot on hand and keep an eye on the sky, watching for gifts attached to Buy a slingshot from Tom Nook and you can get into all sorts of trouble. Well, not really, but you can shoot special floating balloons. Whenever you see one, quickly take aim and fire your slingshot to bring down the prize! Balloon gifts usually contain furniture from the Mario series. This is the only way to get these special pieces of furniture.

NOTE

The slingshot also helps you meet a unique special character who travels by UFO. See the "Neighbors and Friends" chapter for details.

Slingshot Upgrades

Amp up your slingshot skills with these enhanced versions of the popular tool.

Silver Slingshot

Sometimes Tom Nook's shop will sell silver slingshots, which fire two bullets instead of one.

Golden Slingshot

Knock down eight balloon gifts and you might just find a golden slingshot in others you drop from the sky. This super slingshot fires three bullets at once, making it oh-so easy to pop those drifting balloons.

Earning Bells

We've covered all the stuff you can do in town, but of course, the more Bells you have, the more things you can do. So, let's review some fast moneymaking schemes.

Selling Stuff

Selling stuff to Tom Nook is a great way to earn money. You won't have any tools when you first get to town, however, so you're a bit limited in the early goings. A good place to start is the beach: head down and collect seashells to sell to Tom, then try to buy a shovel, a net, or a fishing rod—these tools can all help you make lots of easy Bells!

The Turnip Market

Another way to make fast Bells in the early stages of the game is through the turnip trade. A special character named Joan visits your town every Sunday from 6:00 a.m. to noon; you'll find her just wandering about. Speak with Joan to buy some turnips from her. You may then sell these to Tom Nook, who usually offers much more for them than what you paid. Tom's buying prices change from day to day, though, so make sure you get a good deal before you sell—but don't wait too long or your turnips will rot. Flip to the "Neighbors and Friends" chapter for more details on Joan and her special turnips.

Whacking Rocks

See a rock? Give it a good smack with a shovel and see if any Bells pop out. If they do, keep on whacking that rock as fast as you can until the Bells stop popping. Then pocket all your cash!

TIP

Loose Bells clogging up your pockets? Drag them into your Bell pouch to stash them away.

Shaking Trees

Meet a tree? Grab it and shake it to see what falls out. You might find some free Bells or even a whole piece of furniture! Fruit trees are surefire moneymakers: shake them to make their fruit fall, then sell that fruit to Tom.

TIP

Tom pays more for exotic fruits. Visit your friends' towns and trade fruit with them, then use a shovel to plant their fruit in your town and grow new types of fruit trees.

CAUTION

Watch out for bees! If a hive falls out of a tree, run away fast and take cover inside a building, or try to catch them in a net. Bees will chase and sting you, causing your face to swell up, which may frighten your neighbors. Take some medicine to bring the swelling down, or crawl into bed, save your game, and restart to heal up.

Big Bell Tools

you need to buy tools from Tom in order to score these prizes. Use a net to catch bugs, a rod to catch fish, and a shovel to dig up fossils and Gyroids. Then sell them to Tom Nook for oodles of Bells!

Tom pays a lot more for bugs, fish, fossils, and Gyroids than he does for common fruit and seashells—the catch is that

CITY FOLK

Need a break from your small-town life? Take the bus to the city for a nice change of pace! You'll meet all sorts of interesting characters there, and there are some really cool shops to browse as well. Let's take a good look at what the city has in store for you.

NOTE

This guide always refers to the town you start off in as "the town" and the city you can visit as "the city."

Hittin' the City

Longing for those bright lights and city sights? Run over to the bus stop near the town gate and read the signpost. (The bus stop is shown on your map.) Say that you wish to visit the city, and Kapp'n will pull up in his bus without delay.

NOTE

You can visit the city anytime, day or night, though certain shops will be open or closed, depending on the time of day.

Kapp'n was all business when you first rode in his bus with Rover, but he's got lots to say when you roll with him to and from the city. Kapp'n usually just waxes romantic, but he does spout a few pearls of wisdom every now and again. Sit back and take it all in while heading to the city.

Well, here you are! The hustle and bustle of the city awaits. Head up those steps and let's check this place out!

NOTE

When you've had your fill of the city for the day, return to the spot where Kapp'n dropped you off and read the nearby bus stop sign. Say you want to go home, and Kapp'n will promptly pull up to take you back to town, free of charge.

City Plaza

Open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

Compared to your town, the city is actually a relatively small area. A lot more characters are out wandering about here, though, and you'll see all sorts of new faces just by hanging out in the plaza. Run around and say hi to folks and you'll hear lots of rumors about the city.

There's also an ABD machine on the plaza's left side—a convenient way for city shoppers to access their Bell savings accounts!

NOTE

Most of the folks you meet in the plaza are neighbor-type characters who can move into your town. A few special visitors may pop up from time to time as well. Check the "Neighbors and Friends" chapter for all the details.

Kicks' Shoeshinery

Appears during fair-weather days

Kicks is a cool dude who hangs out on the steps to the right of the plaza's fountain, but he only comes out on days when the weather's clear. Stroll up and talk to Kicks, and he'll offer to shine your shoes for just 500 Bells.

Kicks shines your shoes to match either the color or the style of your outfit. If you choose color, your shoes will look exactly the same, but their color will change to match whatever you're wearing. If you pick style, Kicks will transform your shoes to something that goes with your outfit (dress shoes if you're wearing a skirt, sneakers if you're wearing shorts, etc.). Wear the right outfit and you can change your shoes to any color or style you fancy!

NOTE

You can get only one shoeshine from Kicks each day.

Shampoodle

Open 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Shampoodle is a cute little salon on the city's right side. Step inside to meet Harriet, a friendly stylist who just loves making folks look oh so lovely. Harriet can either change your hairstyle or give you a total makeover—but it's not cheap! New beauty comes at the high cost of 3,000 Bells per visit.

NOTE

Your first makeover from Harriet is free of charge, but you can get only one new hairstyle or makeover from Harriet each day.

Mii Makeover

you want a makeover, though, and she'll change your appearance to any Mii you've created at the Mii Channel! Just pick out the Mii you wish to look like and presto—it's a whole new you!

Say, who's that looker? If you ever tire of being a Mii, just visit the Designs menu. There you can take your Mii mask off and put it back on as you please. You can have only one Mii mask at the ready, but Harriet's always there if you want to trade up for a new Mii makeover.

Don't erase your Miis or you might lose your Mii makeovers!

GracieGrace

Open 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Pop into the fancy department store at the plaza's north end to visit GracieGrace—a schmancy little shop that stocks only the finest and most luxurious furniture and apparel. Though this is Gracie's store, the fabulous giraffe isn't always around—her assistant, Labelle, handles the store's day-to-day business. All the clothing and accessories you see in GracieGrace have been designed by Gracie. This means you won't find any of these fashionable goods anywhere else—and you'll be seeing some ridiculously high price tags. The following tables list all the exclusive merchandise you'll find only at GracieGrace.

Stroll into the building to the right of GracieGrace to visit a special auction house run by a funky Gyroid named Lloid. Here you may take part in exciting auctions that can help you earn Bells and track down hard-to-find items.

How Auctions Work

There are two phases to every auction: display periods and bid periods. You can't bid on items during display periods; you may only put items up for display. You may only display one item per auction, however, and you set the base price on how many Bells someone must bid in order to win the item.

NOTE

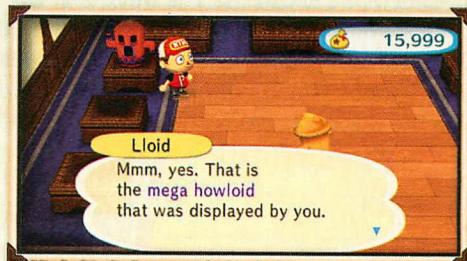

Lloid will tell you when the next display or bid period of the auction will be held—just ask.

TIP

Ask Lloid about your checkroom and he'll let you browse all the items you've stored inside of cabinets and such within your home. How does Lloid pull this off? Who knows!

When the display period ends, the auction shifts to the bid period. Now you can place bids on items you hope to win! Here are the rules to placing bids:

- You may place only one bid per auction.
- You can't see any bids other players make.

- You must have enough Bells in your pockets to cover your bid (there's an ABD machine out in the plaza if you need more Bells).
- The Bells you bid are held by the auction house until the end of the auction.
- When the auction ends, all items go to the highest bidders. If your bid was the highest, you walk away with the item you bid on.
- If you put an item up for display and someone bids on it, you get the Bells and they get the item.
- Bells and items are automatically transferred by the auction house when each auction ends.

TIP

Some of the best items to display at auctions are silver and gold tools, such as silver axes and gold shovels. The normal versions of these tools don't cost much to buy, but it takes time and effort to upgrade them. This means you can usually auction them off for huge profits!

NOTE

If you participate in auctions, you'll periodically receive letters from the auction house. This is the only time you'll see the auction paper.

Sit wherever you like—the show's about to begin! Dr. Shrunk soon takes the stage and puts on a brief and memorable performance for his audience. What a character!

NOTE

If you're really lucky, a special guest performer may appear in Dr. Shrunk's place. Flip to the "Neighbors and Friends" chapter for details.

Watching Dr. Shrunk's acts isn't just good for a laugh; it's also the only way to learn emotes. An emote is an emotional expression performed by your character.

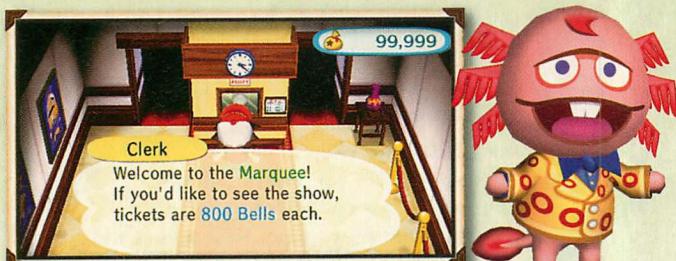

Point your Wii Remote at the screen when the show ends and notice that you now have a special icon at the top of your screen. This is an emote icon—highlight it and press \textcircled{A} to perform the same emote that Dr. Shrunk just showed you! Neat, huh?

NOTE

Dr. Shrunk has lots of different emotes to teach you, so visit the marquee often. You can know only four emotes at a time, but you can always swap out the ones you've got for new ones.

The Marquee

Open 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m.

Head into the theater on the plaza's left side to visit a special place known as The Marquee. Here you can watch unique performances by none other than the esteemed Dr. Shrunk himself. Pay the clerk at the window 800 Bells, then choose which performance you'd like to see and step into the theater room.

Lyle and the HRA

Duck into the building between the marquee and GracieGrace to chat with Lyle. The guy can be a bit depressing at times, but Lyle is also your number-one source for tips and info when it comes to the excitement of home decorating. First, Lyle will bend your ear about the Happy Room Academy (HRA)—a special nonprofit organization that rates and reviews the homes in your

Redd's Secret Shop

Open 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 a.m.

Sprint down the city's left alley and knock on the door at the far end for a unique conversation with a strange voice. The person behind the door says his name is Redd, but he also says he doesn't recognize you and won't let you into his shop without an invitation. What gives?

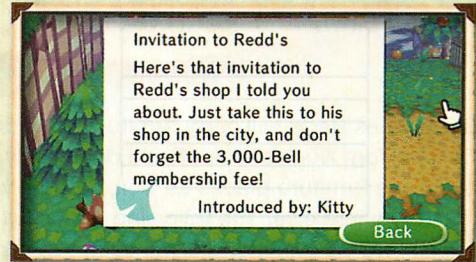

Entering Redd's

Now that you've had your initial dialogue with Redd (however impersonal it might have been), hitch a ride back to town and speak to your neighbors. Sooner or later, one of your pals will ask if you've heard about Redd's shop. Say that you haven't and they'll tell you all about it. They'll even offer to mail you an invitation!

town and speak to your neighbors. Sooner or later, one of your pals will ask if you've heard about Redd's shop. Say that you haven't and they'll tell you all about it. They'll even offer to mail you an invitation!

Your neighbor's as good as their word. Check your mailbox the very next day to find a letter from them with the invitation card you need. Make sure to move the letter into your pockets so you can open it and take out the invitation card. You've got to carry the card with you if you're going to show it to Redd!

Katrina's Fortunes

Open 10:00 a.m. to midnight

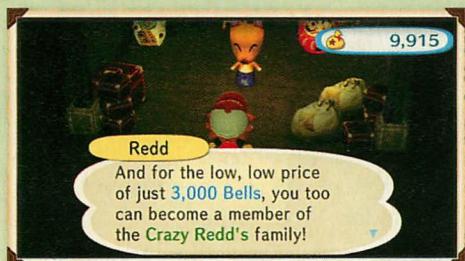

Enter the shop at the end of the city's right alley to speak with an enchanting feline fortune-teller named Katrina. For the bargain price of just 100 Bells, Katrina will gladly read your fortune or place a charm upon you. Your fortune can be a bit vague, but Katrina's charms are a little more useful: They bring you good luck!

Note

You'll also need to pay Redd 3,000 Bells as a "membership fee." This shop must really be something!

With your invitation card in hand, return to Redd's and knock on the door. He'll let you right in. Time to see what all the fuss was about!

one-time membership fee. Yeesh! Pay Redd if you want to browse his selection of exclusive furniture. Redd also sells rare paintings, which you can buy and then donate to Blathers's museum.

Redd's a slippery guy and may sell you forged paintings from time to time. You won't know they're forgeries until Blathers examines them, though. The museum won't accept forged artwork, and Redd has a strict no-returns policy, so it's too bad that this shady character is your main source for paintings.

Sometimes Redd will carry furniture you could buy for fewer Bells at Tom Nook's shop. Redd does carry a number of exclusive furniture pieces as well, though, which you won't find anywhere else. The following tables list all of Redd's special wares—anything else you see in his shop can probably be found elsewhere for less expense.

Resetti Surveillance Center

Available at 8:00 p.m. on random evenings

If you're very lucky, you can sometimes visit the Resetti Surveillance Center, workplace of Sonny Resetti (whom you may have met if you've been naughty and reset the game a few times). Dash to the right after stepping off the bus to find a pair of orange construction cones in front of a small tunnel. You usually can't enter this tunnel because of the cones, but check here every evening after 8:00 p.m. and you might notice that the cones are pushed aside, letting you enter the tunnel beyond!

There isn't much to see inside the Resetti Surveillance Center except Sonny himself. Speak to him to freak him out that you snuck into his "off-limits" workplace. He begs you to leave and even hands you a silver shovel in the hopes that you'll keep the whole event under wraps. No problem, Sonny!

NOTE

The silver shovel is just like the normal one, but it causes more Bells to pop out of rocks you smack. Check out the previous chapter, "Out on the Town" for tips on how to score the silver and gold varieties of each tool.

NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS

When you're not out catching bugs, digging up fossils, or grooming the perfect garden, you'll be spending lots of time with Animal Crossing's memorable cast of characters. Here we detail all the fun-loving folks you're apt to run into in your new life, from special visitors to the wide variety of unique characters who might someday become your neighbors.

Pillars of the Community

Let's first look at all the hardworking folks who make everyday life in Animal Crossing more enjoyable.

Town Folk

The following characters run businesses in your town. For more information on their unique shops, please refer to the "Out on the Town" chapter.

The Able Sisters

These two cuties run a quaint fabric shop in town. Drop by Sable and Mabel's shop whenever you feel like updating your wardrobe. They'll even help you design your own clothing patterns, which you may then place on shirts, umbrellas, flags, and even the walls and floor of your home!

Blathers, Celeste, and Brewster

Swing by your town's museum to meet this unique trio. Blathers is a talkative owl who runs and maintains the exhibits while his sister, Celeste, charts the night sky from the top-floor observatory. Step downstairs and introduce yourself to Brewster, a chill dude who runs the basement café called the Roost.

Booker and Copper

Booker and Copper are two studly watchdogs who stand guard over the town gate. Copper's the confident one who'll help you obtain a friend code to invite your pals into your town (or help you head out to visit theirs). Booker's a bit of a nervous Nelly, but he's also a great source of information—he'll tell you if any special visitors have come to town recently and let you swipe goodies from the lost-and-found.

Kapp'n

Kapp'n is a little different, as he doesn't really live in the town or city. He drives the bus between the two places, though. A chatty fellow who's seen it all, Kapp'n is always ready to offer his stowaways a few words o' wisdom.

Pelly and Phyllis

Drop by the town hall during the daytime to speak with Pelly, who runs the civic center and the post office (depending on which end of the counter you step up to). The town hall is open all hours, so Phyllis works the night shift. Pelly's a lot more chipper than her counterpart, but what do you expect? The night shift at the post office isn't exactly Phyllis's dream job.

Rover

The first character you meet in Animal Crossing is Rover, a helpful cat who's always ready to lend newcomers a hand. Rover rides with you on the bus to town when you first move in, and you can call him up anytime on the telephone next to your bed. He also enjoys a hot cup of joe every now and again, so you might even see him at the Roost from time to time. Be sure to say hi when you do!

Tom Nook

A kind raccoon with a heart of gold, Tom Nook helps you get started when you first move to town by loaning you a home to live in. Tom also runs a little supply shop in town that sells all the basics, including furniture, clothing, tools, and gardening supplies. Tom will help you in a variety of ways as your life unfolds, and you'll help him as well: keep shopping at his store and it'll get bigger and bigger. Eventually, old Tom will even need to hire his two nephews, Timmy and Tommy, just to keep his business running!

Tortimer

With age comes seniority, and this old-timer has been around long enough to become your town's mayor. Tortimer's a friendly old turtle who really gets excited when special events are going on in town. Speak to him during event days for a brief history lesson and, more importantly, free gifts! The following table shows the goods that Tortimer doles out during special occasions; check the "Special Events" chapter for a calendar that shows when these events occur throughout the year.

Tortimer's Gifts

Name	Event
New Year's Shirt	New Year's Day
Cool globe	Nature Day
Picnic basket	Labor Day
Resetti model	Ground Hog Day
Sailboat model	Explorer's Day
Sparkler	Fireworks Show
Town Hall model	Player's one-year anniversary for moving to town
Wheat bundle	Autumn Moon

NOTE

Tortimer sometimes mails you his gifts on special Tortimer paper. This is the only time you'll see this particular stationery.

City Folk

Each of the following characters live in the city, but they're still pillars of the Animal Crossing community.

Dr. Shrunk

This good doctor may look a bit weird (well, okay, really weird), but he's got some important advice to give. Fork over a few Bells to gain admittance to his marquee shows, where Dr. Shrunk can teach you new emotes to use around your friends. Learn to express yourself, the Dr. Shrunk way!

Harriet

A pooch with one amazing do, Harriet runs a neat little salon in the city called Shampoo. Visit Harriet and she'll transform your look with a new hairstyle (for a boatload of Bells). Or have her give you a total Mii makeover! Either way, Harriet's sure to do wonders for your image.

Katrina

If your third eye's in need of some exercise, swing by Katrina's shop and pay a few Bells to have your fortune read by a professional teller. Katrina can also advise you on ways to acquire charms, which can help improve your luck.

Kicks

Care for a shoeshine, guv? Then head into the city on fair-weather days to spy a friendly little guy named Kicks, who's always ready to shine you up. For a fair price, Kicks can change either the style or color of your shoes—and he doesn't even ask for a tip afterward!

Labelle

This classy lass operates GracieGrace, a trendy department store at the city's north end. Labelle's always happy to help you in any way, though her boss, Gracie, is the real talent behind the price tags.

Lloid

Got a basement full of junk? Cart it over to Lloid's auction house and see if you can turn that stuff into cold, hard Bells! This polite little Gyroid brings folks together by letting them put stuff up for auction and place bids on the things they long for.

Lyle

You wouldn't know it just by looking at him, but Lyle is all about style. He runs a branch of the Happy Room Academy in the city, and yearns to help you discover your inner decorator. Stop by his place to learn all about the HRA and sign up for their regular contests. See if you can get your home into Lyle's model room!

Redd

It's tough calling this shady character a pillar of the community, but Redd's certainly got the market cornered when it comes to paintings. Ask around town to see if any of your neighbors can hook you up with an invitation to Redd's shop, then look at what the sly fox has to offer. Just watch out for forgeries!

Special Visitors

Now that we've covered the familiar faces, let's look at some of the unique characters you may encounter from time to time.

TIP

Ask Booker what's new every day and he'll tell you if any special visitors have passed through the town gate recently. If anyone has, make sure to look for them!

Blanca

Turn on Nintendo WFC and a special character named Blanca may randomly appear from time to time. Blanca's easy to pick out—it's the character with no face! Not having a face can't be fun, so do Blanca a favor and draw one on.

Chip

Chip's an eager beaver who appears only when the fishing tourney event is being held in town. Speak with Chip to find out what the tournament challenge is, then do your best to catch the biggest fish you can. When the fishing tourney ends, Chip hands out rewards to whoever wound up with the best catch. Flip to the "Collectibles" chapter to learn each fish's favorite hangout.

Chip's Gifts

Name	Notes
Silver trophy	Win a fishing tourney by catching a specific fish
Gold trophy	Win a fishing tourney by catching any fish

Franklin

This talking turkey is all about giving thanks, but he appears only during the Harvest Festival. First, speak with Tortimer for a brief history lesson, and he'll give you a knife and a fork. Now find Franklin milling about your town and trade the knife and fork for a fabulous gift! The following table lists the goodies Franklin gives.

Franklin's Gifts

Name	Series
Harvest wall	Harvest
Harvest rug	Harvest
Harvest bed	Harvest
Harvest dresser	Harvest
Harvest bureau	Harvest
Harvest sofa	Harvest
Harvest chair	Harvest
Harvest table	Harvest
Harvest mirror	Harvest
Harvest TV	Harvest

Harvest lamp	Harvest

Frillard

Frillard's a zany lizard who sometimes appears in place of Dr. Shrunk to give special performances at the city's marquee. Frillard will teach you emotes unknown even to Dr. Shrunk, so you really luck out when this lizard's about.

Gracie

Gracie has moved up in the fashion world and has opened her own exclusive store in the city. Labelle runs the shop's day-to-day operations, but Gracie graces the shop once in a while to show her loyal fans she still cares. Speak with Gracie when she's around, and you might be lucky enough to learn an exclusive fashion tip.

Gulliver

During weekdays between 6:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m., keep an eye to the sky to see a UFO fly by. If you do, whip out your slingshot and shoot that bad boy down for a chance meeting with a great adventurer named Gulliver! Help find all Gulliver's spaceship parts to get him flying again, and he'll reward you with special gifts listed in the following table.

Jack

Jack's a rare special visitor who appears only in your town on Halloween. Give this prankster candy to receive special furniture, but watch out: If you don't have any candy to give Jack, he might play a trick on you! Stock up on candy before Halloween and check the tables to see what Jack has to offer.

Joan

Joan's a regular visitor who shows up in town every Sunday between 6:00 a.m. and noon. Joan sells special turnips that you can buy off her, then sell to Tom Nook for a profit! White turnips can only be sold, but you can plant Joan's red turnips in the ground and water them each day to make them grow. Dig up red turnips after watering them for about a week and they'll be huge—they also sell for huge Bells!

K.K. Slider

Visit the Roost in the museum's basement every Saturday after 8:00 p.m. to watch an exclusive performance by master musician K.K. Slider. Speak with K.K. to have him jam out a fresh tune, then talk to him again to learn that he's slipped a free bootleg into your pockets! Collect all of K.K.'s amazing songs and pop them into your home stereo so you can enjoy them any time you like.

Katie and Kaitlin

Katie and Kaitlin are two cats who have become separated. Help reunite this mother and daughter pair, and they'll give you a special gift as thanks. Katie and Kaitlin appear randomly, but only after you've visited a friend's town (or vice versa). If you ever see Katie or Kaitlin in your town, be sure to visit your friend's town and search for the other. The player who helps Katie or Kaitlin find her way home will receive one of the special rewards listed in the following table.

Katie and Kaitlin's Gifts

Nat

Nat's an insect fanatic who hosts the Bug-Off events that occur at certain times of the year. Speak with him to learn the rules of the tourney, then rush out and do your best to catch the most bugs. Nat awards the prestigious Bug Trophy to the winner when the event ends.

Pascal

Pascal's a wandering adventurer who might show up in your town during weekdays between 6:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Give him a scallop and he'll fork over a special furniture item as thanks (watch for scallops to appear on the beach). Don't speak to Pascal if you don't have a scallop to give, though—he'll just hop in the river and swim away.

Pavé

Got some candy left over from Halloween? Don't let it go to waste! Seek out Pavé during Festivale, which occurs only once a year. Give candy to Pavé to receive unique furniture in exchange! Pavé gives different furniture for different combinations of candy, so mix it up and see what sorts of furniture you can score.

Pete

The mail business might be slowing down in the real world, but it's booming in Animal Crossing! Pete's your local mail carrier, and you might run into him from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. while he's out on his route. Pete doesn't have any special gifts to give, but he's always happy to speak with someone who won't yell at him for messing up a delivery.

Phineas

Hitch a ride to the city on sunny days for a chance to meet Phineas out in the plaza. This happy-go-lucky character lives to spread cheer and will give you a balloon, pinwheel, or bubble wand just for saying hello. Limit one goodie per visit!

Mr. Resetti and Don Resetti

These two hardworking moles don't like it when you reset your game. In fact, they really, really hate it! Turn off your game without saving and you'll get a visit from a peeved Mr. Resetti the next time you play. Keep resetting your game and Mr. Resetti will become more and more irate! He may even sick Don on you, who's a bit more mellow but still tries to get the point across that saving is important and resetting is cheating.

NOTE

If you visit the city after 8:00 p.m., you might be able to visit the Resetti brothers at the Resetti Surveillance Center and score a silver shovel. See the "City Folk" chapter for details.

Saharah

Saharah's a carpet and wallpaper aficionado who might turn up in your town from 6:00 a.m. to midnight on weekdays. Trade your old flooring and wallpaper with Saharah for a chance at receiving some of the exclusive types listed in the following table!

Serena

Visit the town hall and donate enough Bells to your town fund to have a fountain built in town. Once the construction's complete (and Tortimer moves out of your way), toss an axe into the fountain to summon a mystical character named Serena. Answer Serena's questions for a chance at scoring either a silver or gold axe, which won't break. See? It pays to donate!

Snowman

Ever notice those little snowballs on the ground during the winter months? Well, you can make them bigger by rolling them through the snow. Find two snowballs and roll one up to the largest size possible. Then roll the other one up a bit smaller and place it on top as the head. (The second one's the trick, as it has to be the right size; make it too small or too big and your snowman won't be very happy.) Build a snowman to the proper proportions and he'll reward you by mailing you a special gift!

Wisp

For a ghost, Wisp sure is one big scaredy-cat! That's okay, though; everyone gets scared once in a while. Wisp may turn up in your town during the wee hours; if he does, help him find his empty lamp. Return it to Wisp and he'll grant you one of three wishes—but you have to go into your attic and rub the lamp first!

Poof! Wisp reappears, ready to grant your wish. He'll either remove all the weeds from your town, smash all the roaches in your house, or give you a rare item that's tough to find in stores. You did a nice thing by helping Wisp, so go ahead and claim your reward!

Zipper T. Bunny

Bunny Day comes just once a year, and with it comes Zipper T. Bunny, the friendliest rabbit of all! Zipper's hidden a bunch of special eggs all around town—can you find them all? Dig them up with your shovel and see what's inside. If you find any bunny foil, trade it with Zipper for the following fabulous prizes!

SPECIAL EVENTS

Welcome to Your Monthly Date Planner!

The following shows all the major dates for the year so you can plan what to do during any month. We list any special character who appears on a specific date and time, along with every major event in North America (United States and Canada) and in Europe and Japan! This means you can befriend someone in any of those territories, wander into their towns, and celebrate their events with them. There's even space to write notes on what you did on each day. How cool is that?!

NOTE

Any event with a flag is specific to that country, and you can only see it if you have a friend you can visit in that country or continent. If an event doesn't have a flag, it means everyone can enjoy it.

Neighbors' Birthdays

December 16

Gabi's birthday, honeybun!

There's an entry for every neighbor who can live in your town or your friends' towns. Check to see if any of the names match your six neighbors (this information is on the town hall's notice board too). Hand your neighbor a gift on their birthday; they will be really pleased and will stay in your town (or your friends' towns) for longer!

Fishing and Bugging Out

There's also a chart showing just what bugs and fish you can catch each month; this means you're not chasing after creepy-crawlies or aquatic life that you can't catch because of the season! Refer to the Fishing Chart and Bugs and Insect Chart for more precise times and locations.

Other Events

Some events take place at a random or future time. Here's what they are:

Your Birthday

When you input your birthday during your first tasks with Tom Nook, your neighbors remember; your nearest one brings you a delicious cake!

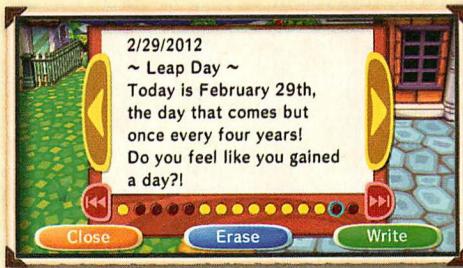

Meteor Shower

Appearing randomly (but the notice board near the town hall gives you a day's notice about it), the meteor shower lights up the skies above your town. Invite your friends over to check it out!

Leap Day

Occurring once every four years, February receives an extra day, and the town hall notice board indicates when this occurs! You've got a long time to wait, though; the next leap day is in 2012; then 2016, 2020, 2024, 2028, and 2032!

Flea Market

On the fourth Sunday of certain months, your neighbors open their homes to you, putting on a little flea market to sell their unwanted items. Drop by and scope out the bargains!

HOME SWEET HOME

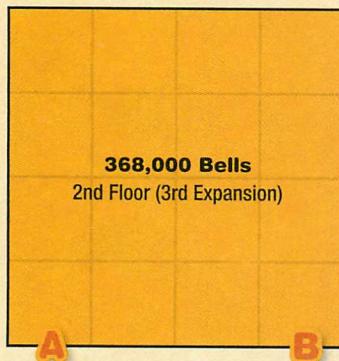

There's no place like home, and this chapter will help you turn your humble abode into a fashionable living space that you'll be proud to show off to neighbors and friends. Follow the tips in this chapter and you'll be scoring big points with the Happy Room Academy in no time!

Movin' on Up

Your home starts out totally tiny, with barely enough room for furniture. But after you pay off your loan to Tom Nook, he'll offer to upgrade your home, making it bigger and giving you more space to sprawl out in. Tom can improve the size of your house many times, eventually adding new rooms and floors. This graphic shows exactly how he'll upgrade your home.

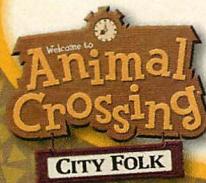

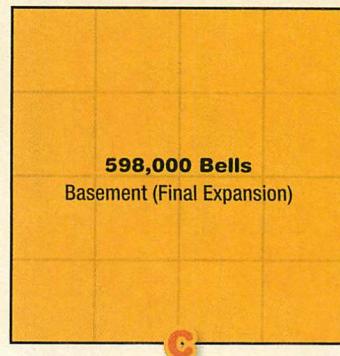

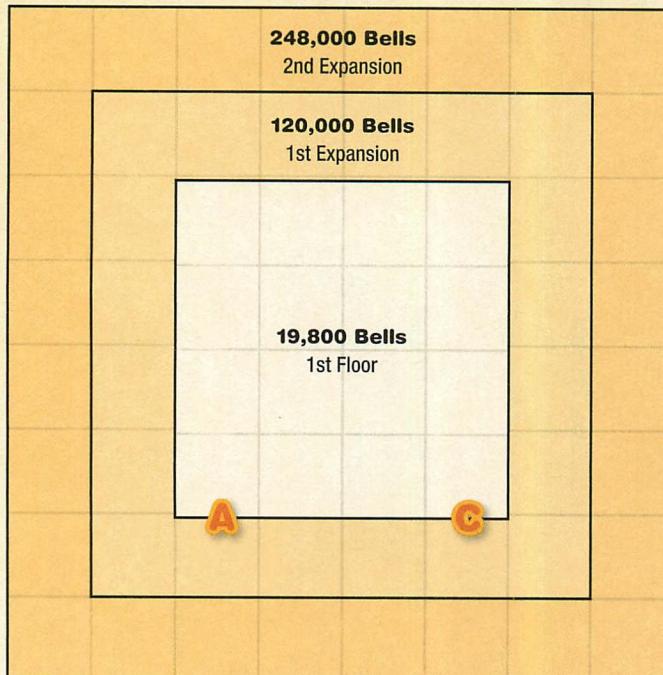

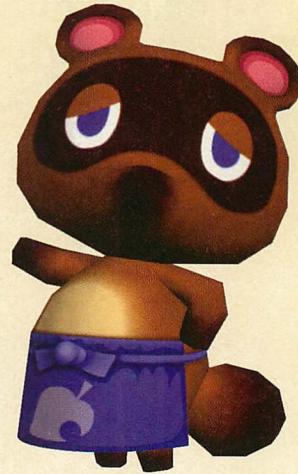

The Staircase

A The letters show how your house's staircase leads between the rooms.

NOTE

Once your house is fully upgraded, you'll be able to change your house's flag. Use the telephone in your attic to call Rover and pick a different pattern.

Wowing the HRA

Swing over to the city and pop into Lyle's shop to learn all about the Happy Room Academy (HRA)—a mysterious group of home-decorating buffs who enjoy sneaking into other people's homes and rating their décor. (Don't worry; they never steal!) Tell Lyle you wish to sign up with the HRA and you'll start getting regular evaluation letters from the Happy Room Academy in the mail.

The HRA carefully inspects the inside of your house when you're not around, looking to see how strong your decorating skills are. They rate your rooms based on a variety of factors, giving big points when you do things like complete a furniture series or theme and pay attention to the fine art of feng shui. Don't worry if we've lost you here: we're about to break everything down in the following sections!

Stay Organized

Plopping furniture and objects around your house makes for a sloppy mess, and that won't win you many points with the

HRA. Keep your place clean and organized, and be sure to squash any ugly roaches you see skittering about!

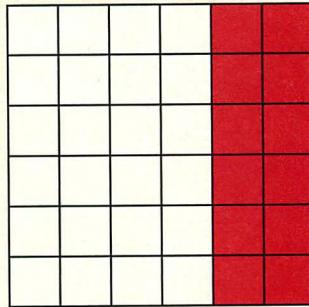

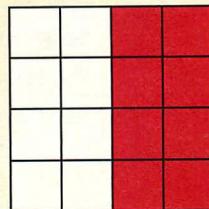

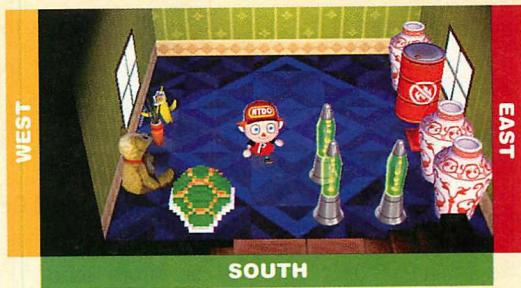

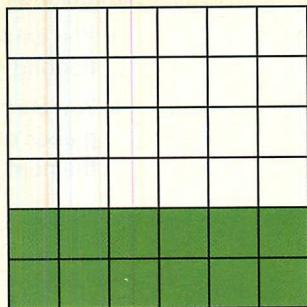

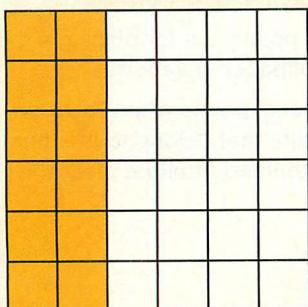

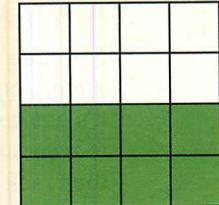

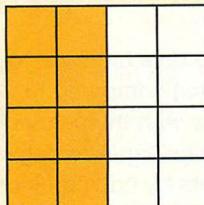

TIP

Furniture was meant to be placed a certain way. For example, a chair's back should be placed against a wall—it's tough to sit on it otherwise! Make sure to spin your furniture into the proper position after shoving each piece into place; the HRA may deduct points if your room doesn't seem functional.

The Art of Feng Shui

Feng shui is a very old belief that items and furniture can be arranged in your home to increase the flow of life's energy, bringing you good health and good fortune. There are many rules and guidelines to feng shui in the real world, but Animal Crossing keeps it simple: just place objects of certain colors against the proper walls, and boom! Instant luck and HRA bonuses.

The following diagrams show how to follow along with feng shui, but as a general rule, yellow items belong on the west wall, red items go against the east wall, and anything green should be placed to the south. Follow the art of feng shui and you'll impress the Happy Room Academy, earning higher scores.

Lucky Items

Some items are just plain lucky and will add points to your HRA score when placed anywhere inside your home.

home. You'll score 7,777 points for each of the following items you keep in your home (multiple copies of the same item won't add to your score).

Furniture Sets, Series, and Themes

One of the best ways to boost those Happy Room Academy scores is by completing furniture sets, series, and themes. While every piece of furniture you plop into a room scores you some points, you earn big HRA bonuses when you combine matching types of furniture. It takes time to find all those pieces, but the next chapter, "Furniture Catalogue," helps you out by listing each and every furniture set, series, and theme, with info on where to find all their parts.

NOTE

You can put more than one furniture series or theme into a single room if you like, but you'll only score points for one series or theme per room.

Furniture Series

Furniture series look nice and consist of 10 individual pieces, plus wallpaper and flooring. You must own all 10 pieces of a series in order to score the bonus points listed below. Once you own all 10 pieces, flooring and wallpaper can be factored in as special bonuses.

- You earn 20,000 points for placing all 10 pieces of furniture in a room.
- You earn 25,000 points for placing all 10 pieces of furniture in a room, plus flooring or wallpaper.
- You earn 30,000 points when you have all 10 pieces of furniture, plus flooring and wallpaper (the complete series).

Furniture Themes

Furniture themes tend to be a bit more "out there" (space theme, boxing theme, etc.) compared to furniture series. It's easier to score points with themes, as you just need to own the flooring and wallpaper to begin with. You may then rack up bonus points by adding pieces of furniture that belong to the theme.

- You earn 3,000 points just for placing a theme's flooring and wallpaper in a room.
- You earn additional points when you start adding pieces of furniture that belong to the theme (3,000 x the number of themed furniture pieces in the room).

NOTE

Even if your furniture doesn't fall in with a specific theme or series, you'll still earn some points by filling rooms with all the different types of furniture (bed, sofa, chair, table, lamp, dresser, etc.) and add flooring and wallpaper.

Furniture Sets

Furniture sets are matching bits of furniture that can be added to any room to increase the room's HRA score. Sets do not have flooring or wallpaper, only pieces of furniture, and can therefore be added to themed rooms and rooms based around a series.

- Add a complete furniture set to any room and you'll score 1,000 points for a piece in the set. (You must own the entire set to earn this bonus.)

TIP

As your home expands and you gain new rooms, you can fill your home with a variety of different furniture sets, series, and themes. The HRA rates each of your rooms individually, then adds all the points together, so it pays to upgrade your home and fill it with lots of matching furniture!

HRA Prizes

Score big points with the HRA and they'll reward you with the following lovely prizes:

HRA Prizes

Points	Prize
70,000	House model
100,000	Wide-house model
150,000	Two-story model

FURNITURE CATALOGUE

Introduction

Welcome to a complete list of all available items you can collect from your town or your friends' town. Before you check out these lists, here are some points to remember:

- The picture shown is how the item looks in your house or at a store; in your inventory, it might look different (like a leaf icon, for example).
- Buy and sell values. A general rule is that each item you buy can be sold back for one-quarter of its original value, which makes the auction a much better place to make some quick cash! Some items, such as those given out during special events, aren't for sale. These are collectible items you'll want to hang on to!
- Available from: You can obtain an item from a variety of locations. Here is a complete list:

Able Sisters' Store: Appears randomly at this store (sometimes by season)

Balloon: In a present tied to a balloon you shoot with your slingshot

Chip: A reward for catching a great fish at a Fishing Tourney event

Franklin: A present from Franklin during the Harvest Festival

Gracie/Grace: Appears randomly at this store (sometimes by season)

Gulliver: A present for finding Gulliver's space part after you shoot down the UFO

Jack: A present from Jack on Halloween

Jingle: A present from Jingle during the holidays

Katie and Kaitlin: A present from these visitors

Mushroom Picking: Either a mushroom or a mushroom furniture piece, picked in November as a mushroom at the foot of a tree

Nat: A reward for catching the best bug at a Bug Catching event

Pascal: A present from this visitor

Pavé: A reward from Pavé during Festivale

Redd's Shop: Appears randomly at this store

Saharah: A present from this visitor

Seasonal: A present during the holidays, usually at Tom Nook's Shop

Shopping points: Collect enough Shopping Points and you can claim one of these items.

Snowman: A present from this visitor

Special Event: A present given during a special event

Spotlight item: A rarer item, appearing randomly under the spotlight at Tom Nook's shop

Tom Nook's Shop: Appears randomly at this store

Tortimer: A reward from the mayor, usually on a particular day

Town Hall: Receive a reward by donating to your town fund, or by depositing Bells in the ABD machine.

Zipper T. Bunny: A reward on Bunny Day

NOTE

There are some additional items that you can obtain, but only in different parts of the world. Check the calendar for further information, and befriend someone in that country if you want to try collecting these items (which aren't included in the following lists).

Furniture Series & Themes

Whether you're giving your home an extreme makeover or wanting to complete a series to earn bonus points from the Happy Room Academy, the following (purely optional) collections can really make your home shine. There are a huge number of themes you can experiment with when putting together a pad. They may not feature a bed and are less functional than a "series," but they're great for a second room and allow you to put a real playroom together!

Dancing Gyroids

Each one of these prized collectibles, dug up randomly from the ground, has a distinctive "dance" and sound. Despite their different sizes, Tom Nook buys each one for 828 Bells. None of these items are for sale, although their "purchase" value (for auctions) is 3,312 Bells. Try collecting sets of the same type to hear a more impressive "tune."

Long-Lost Fossils

Dig up a strange rock, take it to Blathers, and you'll discover the remains of a distinct (and extinct) critter!

Unidentified Fossil

This is what a fossil you've freshly dug out of the ground looks like.

Identified Fossil

Once Blathers uncovers the true nature of the fossil, it now appears similar to this. You can then donate a fossil to the museum, sell it to Tom Nook for some serious Bells (as listed below), or place it as a centerpiece inside your home. If you want to auction a fossil, multiply the sell price (shown below) by 4 to get an average value for such an item.

Bugs and Insects

Scour the earth for these creepy-crawly prizes, and either donate them to Blathers' museum, sell them, or take them home and add them to your cockroach collection! If you want to auction a bug or insect, a good price to pay is around four times the selling value.

Fish and Aquatic Life

Bring your fishing rod, saunter to your favorite fishing hole, and throw out a line or two; you never know what you might catch! If you want to auction a fish, a good price to pay is around four times the selling value.

Fine Paintings

You can either arrange one of these works of art to complement a theme you're working on, or donate it to the art gallery within Blathers' museum. Buy paintings at Redd's Shop for 3,920 Bells (which is also a good price to pay or sell at auction). Sometimes they appear as spotlight items at Tom Nook's Shop, where you can snag them for a bargain price of 1,960 Bells. Watch out for fakes! Any authentic painting can be sold to Tom Nook for 490 Bells.

Tools and Paint

Some items are purely decorative, but there are more useful implements for digging, catching bugs, fishing, and chopping! The price indicates the cost to buy at Tom Nook's Store. If the item doesn't have a value, you obtain it by other means.

Tools

Use these again and again for different manual-labor tasks. If Tom Nook's Shop doesn't have the tool you want, come back again the next day.

Fruit

You can take fruit from your town's trees, import fruit from other towns, or, better yet, pick fruit from another town! Sell it to Tom Nook—100 Bells for local fruit and 500 Bells for imported fruit—or plant it to grow more fruit trees. Grow a variety of fruit for profit. Coconuts are more difficult to locate, as they randomly appear on the beach, and if planted grow into Coconut Palms.

Turnips

If you can buy low and sell high, turnips can be a major source of Bells. There are white and red turnips—the red ones you grow from seed. Depending on your watering, they grow into one of seven sizes. Check Tom Nook's Shop for the weekly price of turnips. Sell them within a week or they spoil.

Unique Items

There's usually only one type of these items, or they appear very rarely (with the exception of Bells). It's good to know what these are.

Pitfall-Seed

1P 2P 3P 4P

Plant this in the ground and watch your friends fall into the hole!

Present

1P 2P 3P 4P

Any time a wrapped gift appears (usually attached to a letter), it looks like this.

Medicine

1P 2P 3P 4P

Buy: 400 Bells

Sell: 100 Bells

Purchase this from Tom Nook's Shop if a neighbor is sick.

Empty Can

1P 2P 3P 4P

Randomly caught during fishing; recycle this immediately!

Sell: 125 Bells

Buy this from Tom Nook's Shop and activate it.

Knife and Fork

1P 2P 3P 4P

Tortimer gives this to you during the harvest festival. Franklin might want to take them off your hands.

Party Popper

1P 2P 3P 4P

Woohoo! It's New Year's Eve, and Tortimer is handing out the celebratory popping streamers!

Sparkler

1P 2P 3P 4P

One of two random items Tortimer gives out during the fireworks festival.

Roman Candle

One of two random items Tortimer gives out during the fireworks festival.

Key

Find this when one of your neighbors is locked out of their home.

Spaceship Part

After shooting Gulliver's spacecraft out of the sky, find this so he can be on his way.

Chocolate Heart

Sometimes you get this from your mom or as a present on Valentine's Day!

Empty Lamp

A strange and spooky guest named Wisp has lost this item. Can you find it for him?

Balloons and Pinwheels

Did you find Phineas in the city square, near the theater? Then you can claim one of the following prizes for free!
